This week GRTV talks to Ellen Brown, an attorney, author, and president of the Public Banking Institute.

We begin our discussion with an examination of Brown's recent article on naked shorting and the suppression of the gold price, and we turn our attention to solutions that the people can use to take back power from the finance capitalists.

We finish on a discussion of the state banking solution proposed by the Public Banking Institute.

This important interview was originally posted on October 2, 2011.
