America created global terrorist groups at least since the CIA's involvement against Soviet Russia in Afghanistan in the 1980s.

Virtually all headline-making groups are US creations, or offshoots from them, used as imperial foot soldiers – recruited from scores of countries, armed, funded, trained and directed to serve Washington's pure evil agenda, its quest for unchallenged global dominance, its endless wars of aggressions, its ravaging and destroying one nation after another.

At a Rome news conference with his Italian counterpart Foreign Minister Paolo Gentiloni, John Kerry was interrupted by a woman, accusing America of "creat(ing) Daesh," shouting a vital truth in public, reported on Italian state-owned RAI television.

Many others continue to explain the same thing, this writer numerous times. Last August, former US Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) head/retired Lt. General Michael Flynn cited official US documents, proving creating ISIS was "a willful (Obama administration) decision."

The so-called war against it and America's "war on terror" are complete fabrications, proliferated by US officials and supportive media.

Washington consistently violates Security Council Resolution 2178 (September 2014), calling on member states to "suppress the recruiting, organizing, transporting, equipping and financing of foreign terrorist fighters" (ISIS and related groups).

A declassified 2012 US report said "there is the possibility of establishing a declared or undeclared Salafist principality in Eastern Syria, and this is exactly what the supporting powers to the opposition want, in order to isolate the Syrian regime" and replace it.

Russia's intervention last year appears to have foiled Washington's best laid plans, aiming to redraw the Middle East map, destroying Syrian sovereignty key, increasingly looking like a failed objective.

The region remains on the boil, a cauldron of endless violence, instability and chaos – America's pure evil agenda entirely responsible.
