From the summary of the 2015 published book entitled Ukraine: ZBIG’s Grand Chessboard & How the West Was Checkmated:

Ukraine: ZBIG’s Grand Chessboard & How the West Was Checkmated speaks to the historical and geostrategic moves by the West to control the Eurasian landmass: the broken promises and treaties, the geostrategic missteps and, finally, how Grand Chessboard fundamentalism actually catalyzed Russia’s re-emergence as a global power, shifted geostrategic power eastward and, proverbially, snatched defeat from the jaws of a U.S./NATO victory.

Seven years later based on today’s grand chessboard stage, the above scenario imminently appears to be a done deal in the making. With a Friday September 23rd headline claiming World War III is already here from Mike Adams of naturalnews.com, the first two sentences of his article assert:

World War III has already begun. You simply aren’t being told this because your government and dishonest media outlets are dedicated to keeping you in the dark.

Though some may construe this narrative as sensationalized click bait, sadly it does appear World War III is upon us.

With the hectic tempo of doomsday events unfolding this past week in combination with the hyped-up social media buzz of cryptic dire predictions for September 24th that include the “death of America,” now that it’s come and gone, though thankfully nothing so cataclysmic as 9/11 has occurred, arguably the world does appear to be on the verge of earthshaking calamity.

More news breaking stories out of China on Friday September 23rd are reporting that a 50-mile long (80km) military convoy is headed into the Chinese capital Beijing, along with all air and rail travel shut down.

Unconfirmed rumors of a coup overthrowing Xi Jinping now on house arrest are flooding Chinese social media, speculating that members of the CCP old guard have seized control and that an attack on Taiwan is next. on Saturday September 24th, 2022 Newsweek ran a story stating that unsubstantiated reports indicate that the People's Liberation China Army commanding General Li Qiaoming has replaced Ji Jinping.

Mutual Assured Destruction (MAD) from nukes destroying the earth in the Cold War days of the US-Soviet arms race has been replaced today by insanely mad neocon DC puppets promoting US "Nuclear Primacy," or the West's first strike advantage, plunging humanity headlong into an "end of the world" danger zone risking impending nuclear holocaust.

And now we've entered the age of hypersonic technology where missiles can travel five times the speed of sound, the West currently in a game of playing catch-up to both Russia and China. Numerous military analysts project the West will lose World War III against the East.

As of June 30, 2022, CNN reports that based on its latest early phase hypersonic testing, the US is floundering to develop a full range of hypersonic warfare that can compete against Russia. Meanwhile, announced on Friday September 23rd, 2022, the Pentagon just awarded a near $1 billion contract to Raytheon-Northrop to build Hypersonic Attack Cruise Missiles for the US Air Force scheduled for delivery in 2027. The problem is, humans are likely to be extinct wiped out in the upcoming world war.

Currently at the precipice of World War III disaster, by malific design our enemy bloodlines have set into motion the West versus the East wartime operations raging in a European and Pacific theater, ignited from fast expanding Ukraine to greater Europe all the way to Pacific Asia's Taiwan. The globalist plan appears imminent to deploy Eastern powers of Russia, China and Iran to intentionally destroy an already weakened West, currently in freefall decline by design. Luciferians' road to perdition is sacrificing the Western bloc of nations on today's two front chopping block. This bleak endgame scenario is further backed by government sourced data on deagel.com, projecting the US population by 2025 to be 65 million people, a colossal culling of over 80% from its current population of 332 million.

The US/NATO has nearly depleted its own weapons stockpile, sent to the Kiev regime where at least 70% ends up sold on Ukraine's notorious black market. With the West's arsenal nearly emptied, plus the US fighting force severely weakened by COVID bioweapon mandates, the West has been rendered virtually defenseless in a world war against the combined forces of Russia and China on two fronts, leaving its only viable option nuclear, as in Israel's Samson Option. If that's the case, we all lose. This dangerous endgame is the elites' last stand.

On the 15th of September, less than a week prior to Putin's nuclear war warning on Wednesday September 21st, a Business Insider article was published entitled "Moscow Could Be Pushed to 'Nuclear Escalation' if the US Overreacts to Russia's Disastrous Invasion of Ukraine, New Report Warns."

On Tuesday September 20th, CNN, the news network that relishes bringing you bad news that's almost all lies, reported:

US and Canadian warships sailed through the Taiwan Strait on Tuesday following weekend remarks from President Joe Biden that the US would defend Taiwan in the event it is attacked by China.

On last week's episode of 60 Minutes, Biden was asked point blank if the US would defend Taiwan if attacked by China. He emphatically repeated his prior commitment to defend Taiwan, even sending US troops, something he stops short of in Ukraine.

The feeble-minded president also claims in the same breath that the US still maintains its "one China policy." Biden's created an ambivalent mess, inviting upheaval in every corner of the globe that feeds right into the elites' agenda, minimizing the chance of a peaceful, negotiated settlement between the two Chinese nations, similar to the divide and rule elements keeping the two Koreas apart. Puppets dance to the tune of their puppetmasters every time.

Willfully violating others' airspace, territorial limits and breeching hostile nations' national security are invariably prewar indicators accompanied by warmongering rhetoric by world puppet leaders, combined with saber-rattling show-of-force muscle-flexing always to heighten global tensions and conflict. On the one hand, these violations are childish games of intimidation with "my gun's bigger than yours" taunt, specifically executed to piss off the enemy to escalate conditions to the next level. On the other hand, they're also a surefire marker and precursor prior to igniting the next major war.

Already this month and next we're seeing an influx of yet another predictable prewar marker – multiple large-scale joint military exercises. Recently more are ongoing than ever before. Currently China and Russia's navies are participating in sea operations together.

China is also now immersed in a joint exercise with India, while next month India has scheduled high altitude warfare training with the US Army near the hotly disputed India-China border. Another US-India joint mountainous exercise in late August enflamed the Chinese to no end, but India is attempting to walk the fine line straddling neutrality with both the East and West.

Earlier this month, while immersed in Ukraine, Russia led the Vostok-2022 exercises in northeast Asia involving 50,000 troops belonging to the military forces of China, India, Laos, Mongolia, Nicaragua and Syria. For the first time, China deployed forces from all its branches in a single, multinational joint operation with a half dozen other nations. Not to be outdone, not far away at the exact same time, the US and South Korea engaged in wargaming joint maneuvers using artillery, tanks and attack aircraft. This of course enflames North Korea which has always been aligned with Russia and China.

Meanwhile, North Korean dictator Kim Jong-un understandably reacts with agitation, as the once on-the-table Korean reunification plan is cast further aside each time the US and South Korea stage another show of force. Kim Jong-un recently said he will never give up his nuclear weapons and missiles as long as the US is deemed such a major threat to his nation's survival. The East-West divisions have grown exponentially since just a few years ago when Trump managed to stabilize frictions with both Russia and North Korea. Whenever US relations sour toward nations, it motivates them in self-defense to strengthen mutual ties. But then the City of London-Vatican controllers have always historically used the United States as their world bully battering ram, warring against other nations 93% of its time in existence.

On Tuesday September 20th it was announced that four referendums in both the Donetsk and Lugansk People's Republics to decide on whether to be part of Russia would proceed from September 23-27th.

Assuming the people of Kherson, Donetsk, Lugansk and Zaporozhye choose to rejoin Russia, in the future this would render any attacks on these areas as direct attacks against Russia proper. Though this is a major step in the right direction toward finally establishing political stability in the Donbas region, it has come at an enormous, belated cost.

If it had also been simultaneously conducted more than 8 years ago when Crimea opted for annexation in 2014, perhaps millions of lives would have been spared. This confirms that, as a minimum, Putin's restraint constitutes a huge lapse of judgment.

In any event, the referendum is a huge, decisive positive step. Paolo Raffone, director of the CIPI Foundation, a Brussels-based geopolitical think tank, weighs in:

Once the Lugansk and Donetsk People's Republics, Zaporozhye and Kherson regions are integrated in the Russian Federation, the game is over. In fact, the US president has repeatedly said that his country is not at war with Russia and that he does not want to commit US troops on the ground to fight Russia nor he wants to use non-conventional weapons. Due to the domestic problems in the US, it would be difficult to reverse such an approach at least until the presidential elections in 2024.

Meanwhile, Biden's foreign policy "expert," Secretary of State Antony Blinken took to Twitter to express his disapproval of Putin's referendum announcement:

Any Russian sham 'referenda' in Ukraine would be illegitimate and an affront to the principles of sovereignty and territorial integrity...

The amount of never-ending hubris and sheer hypocrisy coming out of the filthy mouths of these sorry-ass puppet losers is incredible. The US government as a forever pawn of the planetary controllers, has centuries of historically violating in the most violent, wicked and brutal ways every single principle of sovereignty and territorial integrity of the rest of the world, with the US overthrowing or militarily invading 75 nations while killing 30 million humans just since World War II. Yet Blinken self-righteously preaches and condemns Russia for protecting its national security. Washington DC's total disregard for the sanctity of life and "sovereignty and territorial integrity" of all other nations is epic in the annals of shame.

Putin's television address to his nation this week was delayed by a day, taking place on Wednesday the 21st, announcing his partial mobilization, calling up 300,000 reservists for immediate active military duty. This enormous sized military force definitely exceeds what is required to take down Ukraine, and it cannot be done overnight. This then suggests that it's not just about fighting in Ukraine but preparing to engage in a much larger war in Europe with the West. This expansion of Russian combat forces is the first-time any troop mobilization has ever occurred in Russia since World War II, adding another grave reminder of what is looming on our horizon as inevitable and seemingly unavoidable.

A September 21st zerohedge.com article pointedly states:

In July 2010, the International Court of Justice issued an “Advisory Opinion” on Kosovo (previously part of Serbia) in which it determined a few important points of international law. Namely:

1. Unilateral declarations of independence are not illegal under international law.
2. People’s right to self-determination supersedes territorial integrity.

Washington DC considers itself to be above all international law, still deluding itself as the world’s only superpower living in unipolar fantasyland, hypocritically insisting that its own fabricated “rules based global order” should supersede all international rule of law, which automatically exempts the US from complying with international rule of law. Yet should any other nation violate the US’ arbitrary “rules based global order” yet remain in compliance with international rule of law the rest of the world follows, then all hell rains down as if the DC policymakers are God. The old semantics game and twisted moral principle of “laws for thee, rules for me.”

The Russia-China led coalition quickly gaining global consensus is rudely waking up these magalomaniacal morons propped up as the West’s puppet leaders. They mindlessly parrot each other reading from the same globalist script. Case in point, at a recent NATO military conference, Estonia’s Defense Minister Martin Herem actually uttered these words:

Collectively we must deny Russia the possibility to change today’s ‘rules-based’ international order.

... where the Western puppet masters and their scripted minions get to arbitrarily make up the rules as they go along. Again, they are all living in a delusional world of literal AI hive-minded insanity, mechanically robotically mouthing these same fantastical lies. These useful idiot tools will soon be discarded by their puppetmasters or meet their unwelcome fate at a military tribunal, sentencing the whole lot of them to execution for treason, including judgment day for their masters as well, after incriminating evidence on them is gathered from Truth and Reconciliation Commissions.

Just to affirm how “free” this phony democracy called Ukraine is, legislation to criminalize any citizen in Ukraine including the Donbas that applies for a Russian passport or votes in the upcoming referendums this weekend will be allegedly jailed for up to five years. That’s how tyrannical and desperate Kiev has become as it continues in actuality to lose the war. If it was winning, as the Mockingbird Western media now all insists [again], it would not in desperation resort to these extreme threats of overkill punishment for citizens simply exercising their right to self-determine their own fate through a democratic vote. Dictatorships run by weak autocratic puppets must play its heavy-handed punitive card if it hopes to survive even a little longer but their days are growing shorter.

Rumors this week have emerged that the Governor of the Rothschild affiliated Central Bank of Russia, Elvira Nabiullina, has tendered her resignation to President Putin.

Shortly after Putin’s Ukraine intervention began, a Bloomberg article revealed that Nabiullina as head of Russia’s Central Bank attempted to quit after nine years in March 2022, but Putin allegedly forced her to stay on for the last six months. Conjecture that she has adversely been impacted by the US led economic sanctions freezing Russia’s \$630

billion foreign assets may have played a factor. In any event, with her banking fate still unknown, overall the West's leftist media considers the brooch-wearing 58-year old their darling for her monetary skills keeping afloat the Russian economy in spite of its ceaseless sanctions since 2014, all the while labeled a rare "liberal" amidst the demonized Putin regime. This week's resignation speculation recurred after surfacing in March, and a condition of her purported staying on with Putin was that no military mobilization be implemented.

As recently as 2021, Vladimir Putin made a video (see below) appearance at the World Economic Forum where after Klaus Schwab's introduction of the Russian president, Putin opened his Davos speech mentioning he and Schwab go way back to 1992, apparently maintaining a 30-year friendship all the while. Shortly after making Schwab's acquaintance, Klaus' mentor Henry Kissinger also began his apparent longstanding friendship with Putin, confirmed by Kissinger's right-hand man Steve Pieczenik boasting that he and his boss in 1999 chose Putin to replace the alcoholic Boris Yeltsin as Russian leader. By association, rubbing elbows with infamously notorious Rothschild agents implicates Rothschild affiliated Russian Central Banker Elvira Nabiullina as well as Putin.

Meanwhile, right after Putin spoke to the nation on Wednesday, according to the Western press, flights from Moscow to Yerevan and Istanbul were reportedly sold out. Countries where visas for Russians are not required – Turkey, Armenia, Georgia, and Serbia, were all suddenly high demand destinations of citizens trying to flee Russia, according to Reuters. As a result, within hours the Moscow government ordered all its airlines to immediately stop selling tickets to men aged 18 to 65.

Just to give you an understanding how news services covering the exact same event completely diverge based on particular biases, the onetime Rothschild owned news service Reuters frames its anti-Putin headline "Putin escalates Ukraine war, issues nuclear threat to West," while the far more neutral Arab news service Al Arabiya states, "Putin signs decree on mobilization, says West wants to destroy Russia." Both carry completely different accounts of the same event. Putin is quoted in The Guardian:

To those who allow themselves such statements regarding Russia, I want to remind you that our country also has various means of destruction, and for separate components and more modern than those of NATO countries and when the territorial integrity of our country is threatened, to protect Russia and our people, we will certainly use all the means at our disposal – this is not a bluff, [adding, Russia had] lots of weapons to reply.

The Russian leader justifies mobilization in response to "the dangers posed by the West," which "wants to destroy our country." Clearly from his perspective, Putin is operating with sound moral judgment in self-defense of his nation. Yet from the West's deceptive point of view, he is always portrayed as the "mad Russian," most dangerous dictator and bloodthirsty aggressor in this world since Adolph Hitler.

Putin's Wednesday morning speech articulated an accurate description of some of the typical nefarious activities currently being perpetrated by the West:

Western elites are doing their utmost to preserve their domination and with this aim in view are trying to block and suppress any sovereign and independent development centers in order to continue to aggressively force their will and pseudo-values on other countries and nations.

Again, Putin often makes rational sense. Yet the inverse Luciferian world we're living in flips everything, so that what is truth is called deception and the lies get passed off as truth. In mainstream corporate Western media, this is 100% true.

Immediately following the Putin speech, Russian Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu was even more direct:

I cannot but emphasize the fact that today we are at war not so much with Ukraine and the Ukrainian army as with the collective West. At this point we are really at war with the collective West, with NATO, or vice versa – with NATO and with the collective West.

So there it is, NATO versus Russia and Russia versus NATO. For seven months straight, daily Western propaganda slanders Russia as the “unprovoked invader” of Ukraine, when all historical facts clearly prove that the West for over three decades has illegally broken every promise and formal agreement ever made, while refusing for even one minute to respect Russia's repeated requests to accept its sovereign fundamental right to protect its own national security, even right up to February 24th special operation, while nonstop the West has aggressively provoked tensions and forced Russia to intervene in order to save ethnic Russians, de-Nazify and demilitarize Ukraine from continuing its 8 year ethnic purge in the Donbas, ever since the US illegally overthrew the Kiev government back in 2014.

As if all these latest developments aren't alarming enough, the US and NATO are working overtime this extremely busy week ratcheting up what seems inevitable at this point – World War III.

On Tuesday September 13th, a group of former prime ministers and foreign ministers from NATO countries released their The KYIV Security Compact, which is a signed pact pledging NATO support for Ukraine, in effect, declaring it a de facto NATO member that puppet Zelensky zealously signed off on already.

These warmongering NATO hawks are led by its chairman former Danish Prime Minister and NATO Secretary General Anders Fogh Rasmussen, Australia's former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd, former Swedish Prime Minister Carl Bildt, former UK Foreign Secretary William J. Hague and former ministers from France, Germany, Italy, and Poland, acting as a formal delegation on behalf of NATO clearly taking the Ukraine conflict to another level entirely – from a US/NATO proxy war to a US/NATO direct hot war against Russia, for all intents and purposes, evoking Article 5 of the NATO Charter to directly engage in combative world war against Russia, opening up officially the far wider global war gravely risking nuclear annihilation. This is why Putin is mobilizing 300,000 more soldiers on active duty, because all along US/NATO have been warring against Russia using Ukraine as its incendiary device to ignite World War III.

So, for decades the West has been consistently the only side itching for nuclear war, and seemingly now in response, Putin has been forced to defend his nation and people against destruction. But of course, if Vlad the Bad is merely a controlled opposition Kissinger actor working covertly still with the Rothschild City of London cabal, then it's all just grand chessboard theater, each playing their scripted role, which it might well be, and with Chinese troops reportedly now on the ground fighting alongside the Russian army, there you have it, a preplanned staged East versus West World War III showdown already playing out right before our eyes.

According to a report dated last Sunday, September 18th, former member of the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force Hal Turner analyzed and released photos and a brief video sent to him by anonymous intel sources. They clearly show at least one small convoy of Humvees and troop personnel transport vehicles that belong to the PRC captured on film entering Ukraine from the Russian border. Though this evidence is scant in scope and no claims of a large on-the-ground Chinese military presence in Ukraine can be made, nonetheless it does send a clear brazenly sober, alarming message that:

China has just announced to the whole world that it is now militarily standing with Russia, inside Ukraine.

This strongly indicates that the military Russian incursion is opening up into a much wider international conflict between the two largest Eastern global nuclear powers and the US/NATO forces. Moreover, head of the Chinese legislature, Li Zhanshu, met with Putin in mid-September as well as with Duma leaders, and Li Zhanshu told the Duma:

We see that the United States and its NATO allies are expanding their presence near the Russian borders, seriously threatening national security and the lives of Russian citizens... We fully understand the necessity of all the measures taken by Russia aimed at protecting its key interests... We are providing our assistance.

Every single day, Luciferian controllers move us closer and closer to nuclear World War Armageddon. This disturbing development preceded last week's Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) summit in Eurasia, where Putin met with Xi Jinping to further discuss how China can "provide assistance," now with the breaking knowledge that Xi has militarily sent a contingent of his People's Republic of China's forces already to the Ukraine warfront. While forces of the East get ready for world war in Ukraine against the West, renewing and strengthening their multipolar strategic military partnership to full advantage, their sights are clearly set on taking on the West in an upcoming world war, the inevitable Eastern warfront in Taiwan awaits in all likelihood to be ignited within the next few weeks or months.

Putin returned home to Moscow after last week's big summit, displaying a renewed confidence having apparently accomplished what he wanted, in exchange for assurance that his war in Ukraine would soon end "as soon as possible," made public when India's prime minister Narendra Modi assertively confronted Putin. Russia appears to have received unanimous support from China's Xi, India's Modi, Turkey's Recep Erdogan, Iran's Ebrahim Raisi and even new Pakistani Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif.

While Putin announced his mobilization this week, back in China at a Beijing hosted defense conference, Xi also carried the war drum theme home in his statement quoted in Xinhua News:

It is imperative to conscientiously summarize and apply successful experience in reforms, to master new situations and [understand] the requirements of the tasks, to focus on preparing for wars, and to have the courage to explore and innovate. [Boldface for emphasis]

Shit appears to literally be hitting the fan now. After over a half year of virtually nonstop shelling at the Zaporozhye Nuclear Power Plant by insane Ukraine neo-Nazis, they finally did it. Now it seems we could be on our way to another Fukushima disaster as the plant's cooling system was allegedly damaged and compromised. A water pipe to the cooling system was hit by an alleged US rocket system missile launcher fired by Ukraine based on a larger sized shelling fragment discovered at the scene. The implications are devastating. Tass News Agency posted the news on Wednesday September 21st. It really does appear that major catastrophic events are now happening and that recent dire predictions for September 24th and 25th might be more than just speculation.

Other than Modi's lone voice remarking last Friday in dialogue with Putin, "Now is not the time for war," absolutely no other world leader is even talking peace or exploring any possibility of a nonviolent resolution to all these mounting geopolitical tensions and crises spinning out of control on our planet. This seething ready to explode atmosphere reflects the entire world bracing for the epic shitstorm of monumental biblical proportions erupting just as the elites' reset implodes economies around the globe. It's looking very dark as the crimes of the ages expose the genocidal elites plunging us into world war.

There are only a couple Western national leaders who are lone voices in the wilderness abyss, namely from Hungary and Serbia, as the only leaders possessing the courage amidst pressure to toe the line and lie, committing actions that only harm their citizens. Serbian president Aleksandar Vucic just stated:

I assume that we're leaving the phase of the special military operation and approaching a major armed conflict, and now the question becomes where is the line, and whether after a certain time – maybe a month or two, even – we will enter a great world conflict not seen since the Second World War.

Rutgers University published its research findings last month that if a nuclear war broke out between Russia and the United States, within two years two-thirds of the planet, that's 5 billion people, would be dead. Yet is this dystopian shockwave of harsh unthinkable reality that humanity is now facing in any way actually going to alter or change the imminent probability of it manifesting as our tragic fate?

The Russian geopolitical strategist and ultra-nationalist Aleksandr Dugin, whose journalist daughter was tragically assassinated last month, recently commented on the ominously dark developments in recent days fast descending upon today's earth:

We are on the brink of World War III, which the West is compulsively pushing for. And this is no longer a fear or expectation, it is a fact. Russia is at war with the collective West, with NATO and its allies (though not with all of them)... Yet, the threat of a third world war is getting closer and closer. Whether it will come to the use of nuclear weapons is an open question. But the probability of a nuclear Armageddon grows by the day.

As actress Betty Davis said in her 1950 film classic "All About Eve":

Fasten your seat belts. It's going to be a bumpy night.

Reviews

"This book is a 'must' resource – a richly documented and systematic diagnosis of the supremely pathological geo-strategic planning of US wars since '9-11' against non-nuclear countries to seize their oil fields and resources under cover of 'freedom and democracy'."

–John McMurtry, Professor of Philosophy, Guelph University

"In a world where engineered, pre-emptive, or more fashionably "humanitarian" wars of aggression have become the norm, this challenging book may be our final wake-up call."

–Denis Halliday, Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations

Michel Chossudovsky exposes the insanity of our privatized war machine. Iran is being targeted with nuclear weapons as part of a war agenda built on distortions and lies for the purpose of private profit. The real aims are oil, financial hegemony and global control. The price could be nuclear holocaust. When weapons become the hottest export of the world's only superpower, and diplomats work as salesmen for the defense industry, the whole world is recklessly endangered. If we must have a military, it belongs entirely in the public sector. No one should profit from mass death and destruction.

–Ellen Brown, author of 'Web of Debt' and president of the Public Banking Institute
