The article calls out Mercola, Berenson, Malone, me, and anonymous writer Eugyppius as the most followed “vaccine-sceptic writers.”

Just to be perfectly clear, I've offered to debate CCDH in the past, but they were not interested.

When you don't have the facts on your side, the only thing you can do is decline all debates and call for censorship.

Here are my offers to debate Imran Ahmed and Chelsea Clinton. You can click these and see if they reply. My advice: don't hold your breath on that one.

Nice article in the Guardian on Substack writers. I was wondering if you'd like to debate all of us in a recorded Zoom call? You can have all your "fact checkers" on the call. Or are you afraid?

Would you like to debate all of us Chelsea? I'm game and I think I can get the others as well.
