Turkey's President Recep Tayyip Erdogan in the days leading up to Tuesday July 11th's two-day NATO summit in Vilnius, Lithuania appears to have dramatically pivoted back into the Western Deep State fold, on Saturday July 8th raising the issue of becoming an EU member again, advocating Ukraine join NATO, finally giving in to Sweden as a NATO member on the eve of the Vilnius NATO summit, and last Saturday releasing five neo-Nazi Ukrainian Azovstal commanders vowing to return to the combat zone who were held in a Turkish prison, breeching the original agreement between Ankara, Kiev and Moscow to hold off their release until after the Ukraine conflict.

In front of the cameras handing five commanders over to a beaming Volodymyr Zelensky in Ankara last weekend was optically a much-needed promotional big PR win for Ukraine, just ahead of the Vilnius NATO summit. With Ukraine's counteroffensive a complete failure, optics means everything to this fake actor. But to Russia Erdogan and Zelensky's move was viewed as Erdogan stabbing his close ally Russia in the back. Right afterwards, the opportunistic actor Zelensky flew off to Snake Island to thank Ukraine troops, basking in more centerstage theatrics, reminding the world that southern Ukraine's coastline access to the Black Sea is still controlled by Kiev, despite strong likelihood that Russia will soon militarily snatch Odessa and Ukraine's sea access away for good. The shrinking nation and population of Ukraine will be without its "fearless" dictator puppet soon as well.

A further development explaining this abrupt switcheroo by turncoat Erdogan suddenly kissing US/NATO's ass again is the F-16 fighter jet deal with the US, announced on Tuesday July 11th at the Vilnius, Lithuania NATO summit. This deal had been held up until Erdogan caved in to agree on Sweden becoming the 33rd NATO member.

Considering that over nearly the last decade, Erdogan has consistently thumbed his nose at

America, NATO and the West, overtly distancing himself from his NATO membership while defiantly strengthening ties with Putin, Erdogan in 2022 steadfastly refused to join the US/NATO's condemnation and sanction pile-on against Putin for his Special Military Operation in Ukraine. Less than two months ago, Erdogan defiantly stated in a CNN interview:

We are not at a point where we would impose sanctions on Russia like the West have done. We are not bound by the West's sanctions. We are a strong state and we have a positive relationship with Russia. Russia and Turkey need each other in every field possible.

So naturally this last week's complete turnaround is drawing lots of attention. Erdogan has been coerced by US/NATO/Western power to seemingly betray his now well-established friendship with Putin. Erdogan's neutrality stance toward the Ukraine conflict worked in his favor amongst his Turkish voting constituents to secure his recent reelection bid, and now having overcome that hurdle, Erdogan has apparently reverted back to his checkered past playing both sides against each other in the perennial East vs. West Cold War chessboard game, with yet more cloak and dagger politics that he's notorious for.

Aligning with Putin essentially amounted to aligning with the demonized enemy of the globalist City of London-US power structure, and was not to be tolerated as outright sleeping with the enemy. On top of that, as leader of the seven-decade long NATO member Turkey since 2014, Erdogan's sudden aggression disputing fellow NATO member Greece's ancient sovereign right to its own east Aegean Islands was deemed as more over-the-top antics and insolence bucking the City of London/Washington DC/NATO pecking order deemed the last straw. On February 6th, 2023, the devastating 7.8 Turkish earthquake killing over 50,000 victims appears to be yet another unnatural catastrophe.

In the following month in March Erdogan and his Turkish parliament's unanimous vote was the final NATO member to approve Finland's entry into NATO as an early sign of post-earthquake submission to the West. Thus, in the lead-up to the NATO summit this week, increased pressure was brought to bear on the Turkish president to toe the line, lest another killer earthquake or Soros Purple Revolution erupt in his backyard.

With NATO Secretary-General Jens Stoltenberg and NATO member majority calling for Kiev's clear expedited pathway to membership, it's clear that the Western puppets following their bloodline masters' orders are inching ever closer to igniting nuclear WWIII. The Vilnius summit this week has forwarded NATO's rushed plan guaranteeing Ukraine security for years to come that for all intents and purposes means full de facto NATO membership, despite the largely empty claim to defer it until after the war against Russia ends.

On July 8th the same day as Erdogan and Zelensky violated the deal they made with Putin regarding the Azov prisoners, Erdogan had the gall to say he was pressing Putin to extend the Black Sea grain deal Erdogan brokered last summer for both Ukraine and Russia's shipments of the vital food staple's safe passage to feed a hungry world. Whereas Kiev's grain shipments were earmarked for needy African nations, it turned out virtually all of its grain went straight to nations in the European Union. Moreover, it's been reported that so-called Western cargo ships transporting grain have also been covertly used in the past to ship Western weapons in through Ukraine's port of Odessa. As a result, Russia has been wanting out of the grain deal, and now it obviously has every justifiable reason for shutting it down. Erdogan gained geopolitical brownie points as international broker between the two warring enemies in a humanitarian cause, but also financially gained as middleman charging vessels' access to Black Sea entry through Turkey's Strait of Dardanelles. Some analysts minimize the apparent betrayal by Erdogan toward Putin, claiming his last weekend deal breaker colluding with Zelensky to liberate Azovstal commanders was merely a necessary setup for Russia to then justify pulling out of the grain deal, and that Erdogan and Putin still remain allied "friends," albeit on a less overt basis.

As part of the Ukraine NATO membership greenlight on Tuesday July 11th, NATO head Stoltenberg proposed a fast track end-around to make Kiev a full-fledge member without the wait and bureaucratic hoops other countries go through.

This again only shows the desperation the bloodline controllers are in to push through this instant pathway to nuclear war. Stoltenberg announced the newly formed Ukraine-NATO council meeting with Zelensky at the summit on Wednesday July 12th. Spoiled manipulator Zelensky even threatened to boycott the Vilnius summit unless a concrete instant roadmap to NATO membership is guaranteed. Meanwhile, as recently as last week Braindead Biden told CNN that it is "premature" for Ukraine's NATO membership, but how many times has this chronic liar not kept his word?

Even with the fast track proposal by Stoltenberg, like a truculent, spoiled child, the Kiev narcissist Zelensky angrily wrote his "it's never enough" response on Telegram:

While at the same time vague wording about 'conditions' is added even for inviting Ukraine. It seems there is no readiness neither to invite Ukraine to NATO nor to make it a member of the Alliance... This means that a window of opportunity is being left to bargain Ukraine's membership in NATO in negotiations with Russia. And for Russia, this means motivation to continue its terror. Uncertainty is weakness. And I will openly discuss this at the summit.

Despite incurring the little dictator's wrath, the NATO bloc's joint statement at the summit issued on Tuesday July 11th proclaimed:

We reaffirm the commitment we made at the 2008 summit in Bucharest that Ukraine will become a member of NATO, and today we recognize that Ukraine's path to full Euro-Atlantic integration has moved beyond the need for the Membership Action Plan.

Because a unanimous consensus among NATO was not reached, fearing nuclear war against Russia, the feebly transparent excuse that Ukraine still needs to improve "additional democratic and security sector reforms" prior to full entrance was the NATO bloc verdict, though again, a majority no doubt regard Kiev is still a de facto member.

The Telegraph ran its July 8th headline,

"Fearful Germany preparing to block Ukraine's Nato membership bid." The UK rag along with its government and most NATO countries apparently are all in for world war against the largest nuclear power on earth, and any Western nation that dares to balk or think twice at plunging off suicide cliff apparently gets labeled "fearful."

The problem is Germany's Chancellor Olaf Scholz is a vassal, acquiescing completely to his supposed US ally's Nord Stream pipeline sabotage. We live in an insanely dangerous world now. In reality, Germany is not alone wanting to survive what's coming and it's doubtful Ukraine will officially be admitted to the NATO suicide club. In the meantime, Russia will steamroll its way to victory sometime this summer.

The Baltic States and Poland are the biggest Russian haters chomping at the bit for NATO to battle it out against Putin. Yet nearly half of the Polish people in the latest poll are against Ukraine's NATO membership because they wish to stay alive a few more years.

But sadly, the flipside of this survey indicates that even a slight majority in Poland actually desire Kiev as a member, which automatically through Article 5 brings on nuclear World War III. So, bottom line here is that most Poles want WWII. And guess who will be the first to die from a Russian launched mushroom cloud, this brainwashed, war-craving, Russia-hating Polish majority along with the rest of Europe, North America and there goes our world fast becoming instinct of the humanoid creatures for yet another evolutionary go-round. As long as Satan's dominion is this earth, it seems Homo sapiens are forever doomed.

But the West has not let up pressure in the least to incite a wider war against Moscow, especially with Commander-in-Thief Biden's decision last week to begin sending cluster bombs to Kiev as one more desperado move breaching yet another Putin red line. It's all too obvious that the global powerbrokers are going down with Ukraine, so they are frantically lighting an ever-so-short fuse now to potential nuclear annihilation. The bloodline controllers and their puppets are all working overtime for Satan.

Speaking of cluster bombs and working for Satan, National Security Council spokesman John Kirby openly admitted to US war crimes on Sunday news venues with the following statement:

We can all agree that more civilians have been and will continue to be killed by Russian forces... than will likely be hurt by the use of these cluster munitions... We are very mindful of the concerns about civilian casualties and unexploded ordinance being picked up by civilians or children and being hurt, of course we're mind of that.

A 123-nation majority around the globe banned this deplorable weapon since 2010 for indiscriminate targeting of civilians after studies showed 97% of those who die are civilians and two out of three are children.

The Kremlin argues Kirby just admitted the US is knowingly committing war crimes in Ukraine, with the vast majority of victims, civilians who'll most likely be ethnic Russian children living in the Donbass, Kherson and Zaporozhe years from now.

Even Democrats and many NATO countries oppose this latest desperado move to ineffectively delay the inevitability of a Russian victory culminated by Ukraine's unconditional surrender as a devastated failed state empty shell of a nation. And that all this death and destruction could have so easily been prevented by US/West/bloodline controllers if only Russia's right to national security was accepted. But the Satanic elements feeding off death and destruction would not have it any other way.
