The following short report brought to us by Washington's Blog is fundamental, if it is a leak rather than a hack, the Russia-gate agenda falls flat, the Russia Probe has no legitimacy. Read carefully, view video. (GR Editor)

We've reportedly documented that the DNC emails were leaked ... not hacked.

(And the "evidence" that it was the Ruskies has collapsed.)

The head of Wikileaks - the organization which published the leaked DNC emails - has previously hinted that the leaker was DNC insider Seth Rich.

Today, the local Washington DC Fox news channel reports that the Rich family's private investigator - a former Homicide Detective in Washington DC and white collar criminal investigator for the Attorney General of the State of Ohio - says that evidence on Rich's computers proves that he communicated with Wikileaks:

We'll update details as they're released ...
