Global Research, December 13, 2022

Dear Readers,

Before we leave 2022 behind, we would like to extend our sincerest gratitude to you for your unbending support.

Censorship in 2022 has left its toll. It's ongoing. Last May it culminated into a wave of cyber attacks emanating simultaneously from five countries consisting of millions of so-called "malicious requests", which were expediently blocked by our security specialists.

Thanks to you Global Research readers and authors, we have been able to maintain our readership Worldwide by "spreading the word" through effective referrals of our articles.

Come 2023, we wish for more people to awaken to the truth and resist further democratic backsliding.

It is our utmost goal that people worldwide stand up for peace, justice and equality and challenge the path to tyranny.

We cannot emphasize enough that Global Research is reader-supported; this essentially means that we do not receive any funding from any entity. This is the only way we can maintain our independence and pursue an objective reporting.

This holiday season, would you be our Santa and "make our wish come true"?
