Imagine, there is the so-called COVID pandemic threatening the entire world with total societal and economic collapse, let alone all the collapses in between, like health, mental, nutritional cum famine – increasing misery and fear, fear, fear, tremendous fear, day in, day out.

People’s capacity of thinking straight is already drastically reduced by the useless mask-wearing – as you inhale CO2, rather than oxygen.

Now they are also after your children – which is the biggest crime of all... just imagine.

Obligatory useless mask wearing. The lack of oxygen flowing into their lungs and into their young developing systems, may reduce their IQ – capacity of independent thinking.

And now also “vaccinations” all the way down to 5-year-olds. In some countries even younger.

Already today, cardiac problems abound. Even in children. The experimental mRNA gene-therapy injection may cause acute myocardial injury and chronic damage to the cardiovascular system, leading in many cases to death, as has occurred in many cases in otherwise healthy children.

Ask yourself: Is this what the Gates, Rockefeller, Schwab, and their World Economic Forum (WEF) System want?

It meets their eugenics agenda of Depopulation.

Then comes Scenario Two

NATO threatening Russia over Ukraine. Russia drawing a red line – up to here and not an inch further, meaning “not an inch closer to the gates of Moscow”. NATO’s Stoltenberg stooge, of course, repeats what he has been told – NATO is doing what they think is right, and if they think arming Ukraine and making Ukraine a NATO member, this is none of Russia’s business. The frontiers become harder. Russia advances troops towards the Ukrainian borders, but does not invade. As Putin said, a red line is drawn.

Simultaneously, the Russian-Chinese alliance is strengthening and solidifying. You have an eastern powerhouse of two military giants, with China being also the world's second largest economy, mind you, a largely de-dollarized economic power. That's important to understand: US sanctions won't hold, they are mere words blown in the wind, and a bit of propaganda for those who are misinformed and still believe in the might of the West.

The dollar has not only lost its luster, but is increasingly shunned by countries who dare to do so, because the US is every day more recognized as a failed state, as a declining empire, if ever it was one.

Now, imagine, these two scenarios, Covid versus NATO, confronting each other, the West knows, fully aware that that they, NATO, would stand not a chance against Russia and China, not on the huge Eurasian Continent, and not in the South China Sea.

Europe in the Middle

Why would they risk destroying each other? With Europe in the Middle.

Sounds like in the two previous World Wars – Europe in the Middle. Putin actually has said so, first targets would be Europe. Why? Because almost all of the 30-plus NATO military bases threatening Russia are in Europe.

Are the European leaders so brainless that they would want their countries destroyed for the third time in a little more than a century? – Sometimes one wonders. But overall, probably not.

UN Agenda 2030

So, then, what is more destructive, and not even localized, but worldwide and following a firm agenda, namely the UN Agenda 2030 – where no infrastructure is at stake, yet, human destruction is targeted and transfer and appropriation of real assets is the objective – as well as full digitization of money of assets and of human brains.

And – imagine! – no destruction of infrastructure!

All for full control of everything by a small elite. Control of money, control of disease, control of behavior and – yes – control of our human brains. Klaus Schwab, WEF, calls this process The Great Reset. That's a plan that deserves more attention than the simulated, false war games around Russia and China.

This "plan" follows the ten-year UN Agenda 2030. It has been prepared for at least 70 years, if not longer, with simulations and trials, with events... all in the open, but we sleepwalking citizens have noticed anything.

What ought to be said at this point, is that our freedom that we cherish and that we claim is ours by Constitutional Rights and cannot be taken away – that we have Human Rights that are untouchable – yes, ideally. But let's face it. None of these rights are cast in iron or stone. At best, they are written on paper.

Therefore, none of these rights can be taken for granted. Life and Mother Earth and all sentient beings of our planet and elsewhere in the universe are dynamic – dynamic beings, with dynamic non-predictable lives and movements.

If we let ourselves be absorbed by comfort and by senseless consumerism – and, thus, in particular the western world that already today consumes about 4 times more than Mother Earth produces, then we, humans have to be jolted back into reality. Otherwise, we are really doomed. Not because Klaus Schwab says so, but because Mother Nature, Mother Earth, needs to breathe again.

The sooner we wake up, the sooner we will be able to claim back our human rights, our civil rights and our sovereign freedoms. But they do not – and should not – come just because we believe they have been written into some Constitutions. No. We have screwed up, despite the many warning signals.

This, of course, does not mean – and it must be said again — that we should go the way projected by Klaus Schwab, at the end of the ten-year agenda, we all own nothing but are happy.

“What is envisaged under “the Great Reset” is a scenario whereby the global creditors will have appropriated by 2030 the World's wealth, while impoverishing large sectors of the World Population”.

In 2030 “You'll own nothing, And you'll be happy.” (see video below)

Under Klaus Schwab's scenario, we would also be totally brainless and vulnerable to electronic signals that manipulate and control us like they do for robots,

In fact we would become robo-humans, or as Schwab calls them “transhumans” (2016 interview with Swiss French TV, in the first 3 minutes of the Video below).

This is not all. What the WEF also has in store for us and mind you the WEF is just the executing apparatus, consisting of super rich and powerful players like Wall Street, politicians, Hollywood, and, yes, “scientists” that are famous and whose words bear weight, never mind “bought” weight of falsehood and fake science.

The WEF and its co-players and actors, IMF, World Bank, major regional development banks, WHO, the entire UN system – have been simulating what they call a “polygon” pandemic, meaning a total breakdown of the world’s electric / electronic system on which all our activities practically depend on.

Foremost, the “polygon” disruption would target supply chains, with focus on food supply and other necessary amenities, so that simple daily tasks and necessities, like getting food into our stomachs, would be disrupted. Nobody knows for how long. But probably long enough that famine would come to town, to all of us who have not been attentive with foresight in building-up food stocks of long-storables, such as grains, sugar, flower and so on.

In Klaus Schwab’s own words:

“A Frightening scenario of a comprehensive cyber-attack [that] could bring a complete halt to the power supply, transportation, hospital services, our society as a whole. The COVID-19 crisis would be seen in this respect as a small disturbance in comparison to a major cyberattack.”

The WEF Managing Director, Jeremy Jurgens, referring to “polygon”, says:

“I believe that there will be another crisis. It will be more significant. It will be faster than what we’ve seen with COVID. The impact will be greater, and as a result the economic and social implications will be even more significant.”

Just imagine, what that might bring about?

Not only days, weeks, possibly months, without light, pitch dark nights – a thriving ambiance for thieves – but also days without electronics, without electronic communication we have grown so dependent of. Basically, without communication. Period. Because we have forgotten how to communicate, if not electronically.

Such a scenario, or different scenarios for different times, are planned.

They might cause further disaster, misery, famine, disease, death. It’s what “they” want. It’s an integral part of the infamous UN Agenda 2030. This may be a key reason why most countries have already clandestinely prepared their governments for martial law. Any people-power must be suppressed before it swells up.

So as to avoid these horror scenarios by WEF, Bill Gates, Rockefeller, Kissinger et al, we have to wake up and fight, not against the enemy, but for our own new life, our own new values, not those falsely invented hypes of climate change and green values. They are all part of what transforms us into useless and brainless gnomes that follow blindly a litany of lies dished out by the reigning financial elite.

We have to find our own new values. Back to the old normal is a no-no. That would mean back into the old consumption-driven comfort zone. That would be a failure.

We humans have to vibrate on a higher level on a level beyond hatred, beyond vengeance, on a level where we can see the light and only the light and a future that binds us in solidarity.

Now imagine – is it more realistic to speculate about a NATO invasion of Ukraine, provoking Russia’s Red Line, or even attacking Russia, and / or – God forgive – China? – Or shall we rather concentrate on defeating the western supremacy, driven, coerced, blackmailed and bought by the financial super-power – BlackRock, Vanguard, State Street, Fidelity – that manages a leverage supremacy of some 80 trillion-plus dollars, by switching our values away from traditional monetary values, towards human and life values and community economics – like solidarity, as in:

“local production for local markets, with local money and local communal and public banking with sovereign central banking....”.

And trading with like-minded societies building on comparative advantages – towards the real meaning of trade – namely a win-win situation for all partners.

And yes, we can do it, if we want to, and especially if we realize that sticking to our comfort zone rather than waking up to an uncomfortable reality, will simply put us deeper into slavehood, into the misery as predicted – of course not in so many words – by the Great Reset. We must take back our lies in environmentally and societally meaningful ways.

And now imagine, John Lennon’s song:

“Imagine there’s no heaven
It’s easy if you try
No hell below us
Above us, only sky

Imagine all the people
Livin’ for today

Imagine there’s no countries
It isn’t hard to do
Nothing to kill or die for

And no religion, too

Imagine all the people
Livin' life in peace

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one

Imagine no possessions
I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger
A brotherhood of man

Imagine all the people
Sharing all the world

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will live as one

Or summed-up for the times of 2021 / 2022, as per Professor Chossudovsky's Video: "Imagine All The People": The Covid-19 Omicron Christmas and New Year Lockdown.
