

Donate to Azov Nazi Psychopaths via your Credit Card

It's easy to donate money to Nazis, but if you counter the state's narratives you will be denied access to the banking system.

In September, the Azov Nazis came to America in search of loot to finance their ongoing effort to murder and ethnically cleanse any hint of Russian ethnicity in Ukraine.

All you really need to know is that Azov Regiment leaders were just in the US on a lobbying tour, where they proudly displayed their explicit Nazi-derived Wolfsangel insignia and raffled off their patches as prizes. No one proclaimed any anti-semitic danger. It's just a farce <https://t.co/We4nuMhk14>

For the Azov Nazis, the Russian "special operation" to disarm and get rid of them is a fine way to manipulate the emotions of clueless, headline-skimming Americans and convince them to donate money under the pretense of fighting against Russian tyranny.

The AZOV combat units, which "Support Azov" handles, have demonstrated their high combat effectiveness.

Since the beginning of Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine, they have successfully carried out tasks on the hottest points of front lines.

The fighters protect your peace, but they also need your support.

For details on this under-reported Nazi tour, see "‘Now, All of You Are Azov’: Ukrainian ‘Neo-Nazis’ Tour U.S." by Moss Robeson, posted in early October on his Ukes, Kooks & Spooks blog.

Robeson writes the Ukronazi “delegation” is not only hunting for cash in America but also attempting to sanitize the Azov Battalion image.

With the myth-making about Azov's supposed depoliticization reaching new heights, this cofounder of the regiment couldn't even get the story straight whether they "got rid" of their far-right elements or never had them to begin with. <https://t.co/As3xHlAgvV>

Nazi thugs are apparently popular with at least some of America's “representatives” in Congress.

Almost missed this: Adam Schiff, chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, also met the Azov delegation <https://t.co/lm2naH74zx>

It is now safe to support Nazis—who we are told are not Nazis—or the Uke version of nazism based on the same principles as their mentors in fascist Germany in the 1930s and 40s: disappearance, murder, ethnic cleansing of subhumans, and good old fashion lebensraum in eastern Ukraine.

If you use a corporate search engine, you will discover this Uke Nazi thing is a figment of Russian propaganda and delusional thinking. Consider the following brief examples:

- Putin's “Nazi” rhetoric reveals his terrifying war aims in Ukraine
- How the Russian Media Spread False Claims About Ukrainian Nazis (this one is behind a paywall, so you have to shell out your hard-earned money for revisionist history)
- Why Does Russia's Leadership Keep Saying that Ukrainians Are Nazis?
- The Shadowy Russian Scheme That Dumped Nazis Into Ukraine (the “nazi problem” is Russia's fault)
- One of the worst ways Putin is gaslighting the world on Ukraine (“Putin isn't fighting neo-Nazism. He nurtures it, making his pretext for invading Ukraine even more repellent.”)

According to the corporate war propaganda media (all of the above are members in good standing), the real Nazi is Vladimir Putin and, as we are told in the last “news story,” Russian “Nazi” mercenaries are fighting alongside defenders of Donbas.

Never mind many of these propaganda outlets, reading from USG scripts, denounced the “far-right” supposedly ascendant in much of Europe, especially Ukraine, prior to Russia’s “invasion,” are now de-ranked, the internet version of Orwell’s memory hole.

Suppose you write or speak historical truth at odds with USG war propaganda—or a number of other topics considered “conspiracy theories”—and you utilize PayPal for donations or commercial transactions. In that case, you may not only lose access to its banking microcosm but also have your money stolen.

PayPal will apparently still fine you 2500$ for what they decide is hate speech... Even though @PayPal told everyone they removed that. That company is so bad in so many ways. From @Timcast <https://t.co/Fj7mEKALxw> pic.twitter.com/A9olciFHQL

However, if you financially support the Azov Nazis, you may proceed unhindered, as the screen capture above reveals.

Paypal has reinstated it's $2,500 fine for "Misinformation" and "Hate Speech" but they have no problems allowing the Ukrainian Neo-Nazi Azov Battalion to crowd fund using their service.

Recently, donations were used to commemorate and rename streets in honor of fallen Neo-Nazis. pic.twitter.com/DiVQrfTISl

Note the Azov logo with its Norse runic Wolfsangel symbol, a favorite of the Wehrmacht, Das Reich, and the Sturmabteilung (SA Brownshirts, and later the SS).

But never mind. Millions of Americans have no idea this is a Nazi symbol and that the Azov Battalion is responsible for torturing, raping, disappearing, bombarding, and murdering thousands of ethnic Russians that have lived in what was, before “annexation” (voting to leave the Nazi-infested Ukraine), Novorossiya (New Russia, beginning in 1764 and ending in 1917 when the region was incorporated in the Ukrainian People’s Republic).

In the ongoing effort to demonize and undermine Russia, the USG and its media are pulling out all the stops, and are fully engaged in a brazen attempt to revise history and memory-hole reality.

Such idiocy may eventually play a role in the thermonuclear extinction of life on planet Earth.

Finally, as to the role played by banks and Wall Street in financing nazism, see Antony Sutton, “Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler.” Banker support for Hitler and the Nazis began in 1924 with the Dawes Plan.
