Se está desarrollando una guerra discreta que podría involucrar una confrontación militar directa entre EU-OTAN y Rusia

Regeneración, 27 de noviembre de 2015.- El derribo de un avión ruso que sobrevolaba Siria fue ejecutado por Turquía en consulta con Washington y Bruselas. Turkía no emprendió esta acción sin la luz verde del Pentágono.

Así lo informó el profesor Michel Chossudovsky, un profesor emérito de economía de la Universidad de Ottawa, en su artículo para el sitio Global Research.

¿Es esto una venganza contra Rusia por bombardear al Estado Islámico, financiado por Estados Unidos, en Siria?

La verdad no dicha es que Rusia está debilitando las operaciones terrestres de la OTAN y Estados Unidos en Siria, que están compuestas por diferentes grupos afiliados a Al Qaeda. Estos grupos son los soldados de a pie de la alianza occidental.

Chossudovsky afirma que el Estado Islámico y el Frente Al-Nusra están dirigidas por operativos de inteligencia y fuerzas especiales occidentales, muchas de las cuales son desplegadas por compañías privadas de mercenarios contratadas por EU y OTAN.

El derribo del avión Ruso es un acto de provocación, pero ¿con qué propósito?

Se está desarrollando una guerra discreta que podría involucrar una confrontación militar directa entre EU-OTAN y Rusia.
