

“End of the World”... Want Truth or Fiction?

By Global Research and Global Research

Global Research, December 20, 2012

There's no doubt about it — we are at a turning point in history. These are undeniably dangerous times... but not because of ancient prophecies and wild doomsday scenarios. It is the wars, militarization, poverty, greed, corruption and well-financed disinformation campaigns that pose a REAL danger to the world. And they are frightening, indeed.

The good news is that unlike apocalyptic projections, all these problems are created by people, and therefore can be SOLVED by people. We have all the tools for peace, we just need not to be afraid to use them.

“Global Research international coverage is a must read if you want to get behind mass media headlines. It threatens you. You may not enjoy it, or know how to face the reality with which it slaps you. It will force you to think. And maybe act. Global Research is the kick in the cerebral mass we all need at times.”

—Denis J. Halliday, UN Assistant Secretary-General 1994-98 (See list of articles by Denis Halliday)

Visiting Global Research means you're ready to think... Now, are you ready to act? It may be the end of the world as we know it, but it's not the end of the world. It's time for change, time to choose peace over violence, facts over lies.

Making a donation or taking out a monthly or yearly membership with Global Research means making an ongoing commitment to brave, honest journalism and, ultimately, to peace. If we are to face the real demons threatening our small and beautiful planet, the truth is our most valuable weapon, and Global Research will fight on to bring us closer to it. Will you join us?
