European Union refuses to recognize Israeli sovereignty over Occupied Palestinian West Bank, Gaza Strip, East Jerusalem or the Syrian Golan

Consequently, all illegal settlers should be repatriated back to Israel, all 500,000.

Then, and only then, can there be a peace accord.

European Commission Brussels, 11.11.2015 C(2015) 7834 final Interpretative Notice on indication of origin of goods from the territories occupied by Israel since June 1967

‘(1) The European Union, in line with international law, does not recognise Israel’s sovereignty over the territories occupied by Israel since June 1967, namely the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, and does not consider them to be part of Israel’s territory¹, irrespective of their legal status under domestic Israeli law². The Union has made it clear that it will not recognise any changes to pre 1967 borders, other than those agreed by the parties to the Middle East Peace Process (MEPP)³’
