Spying: The Big Picture

If you've been too busy to keep up with the spying scandal, here's an overview:

- The government is spying on virtually everything we do
- The government's mass spying doesn't keep us safe
- NSA spying did not prevent a terror attack on Wall Street
- There is no meaningful oversight of the spying programs by either Congress or the courts
- We can keep everyone safe without violating the Constitution ... more cheaply and efficiently than the current system
- The top counter-terrorism Czar under Clinton and Bush says that revealing NSA spying programs does not harm national security
- Whistleblowers on illegal spying have no "legal" way to get the information out
- A high-level intelligence source says "we hack everyone everywhere"
- Some people make a lot of money off of mass spying
- Spying started before 9/11 ... and may have stemmed from an emergency program only meant to be activated in the case of a nuclear war
- Governments and big corporations are doing everything they can to destroy anonymity
- Mass spying creates an easy mark for hackers
- Polls show that the public doesn't believe the NSA
- Surveillance can be used to frame you if someone in government happens to

take a dislike to you

- An NSA whistleblower says that the NSA is spying on – and blackmailing – top government officials and military officers (and see this)
- High-level US government officials have warned for 40 years that mass surveillance would lead to tyranny in America
- Government spying has always focused on crushing dissent ... not on keeping us safe
- While the Obama administration is spying on everyone in the country – it is at the same time the most secretive administration ever (background). That's despite Obama saying he's running the most transparent administration ever
- Top constitutional experts say that Obama is worse than Nixon ... and the Stasi East Germans
