Recently retired government bureaucrat Anthony Fauci just appeared at a university virtual event titled, "Pandemic Lessons and Role of Faculty in Pandemic Preparedness with Dr. Anthony Fauci." During the conversation, Fauci, who is now affiliated with Georgetown University, made it clear that he still supports locking down society in the name of a virus, adding that lockdowns are a great tool to forcibly "vaccinate" people.

I'll save you 40 minutes of your life and quote some of the "highlights" from the interview, in which a Wayne State University professor asks Fauci about what he's learned from his time overseeing a "pandemic response." The video of the chat is available via YouTube below:

Fauci falsely claimed that New York City was overrun and had "cooler trucks outside because they had no places to put the bodies."

"You had to have something to immediately shut down the tsunami of infection," he states, adding, "that lockdown was absolutely justified."

"Lockdown has a purpose," the pseudoscientist continued. "One of the purposes, if you don't have a vaccine, it's to get more ventilators, get the hospitals better prepared ... until you decompress the pressure on the hospitals.

Fauci wasn't done yet. Here comes the truly evil insanity...

"If you have a vaccine available, you might want to lock down temporarily so you can get everybody vaccinated,” he suggests.

Rejecting the idea that lockdowns are a moral question, he added that “lockdowns have a place, but they are not a permanent solution.”

The conversation continued, with the longtime NIAID chief declaring that “climate change” is “playing a role” in causing outbreaks.

He then calls for an “international commitment to decrease the carbon imprint in society so you don’t have the kinds of crazy weather we’re having in this country.”

Yes, that’s a real quote.

He went on to blame the tragedy in Maui on climate change. “It’s completely, really amazing what’s happened with climate change,” he concludes.

The Worldwide Corona Crisis, Global Coup d’Etat Against Humanity

by Michel Chossudovsky

Michel Chossudovsky reviews in detail how this insidious project “destroys people’s lives”. He provides a comprehensive analysis of everything you need to know about the “pandemic” — from the medical dimensions to the economic and social repercussions, political underpinnings, and mental and psychological impacts.

“My objective as an author is to inform people worldwide and refute the official narrative which has been used as a justification to destabilize the economic and social fabric of entire countries, followed by the imposition of the “deadly” COVID-19 “vaccine”. This crisis affects humanity in its entirety: almost 8 billion people. We stand in solidarity with our fellow human beings and our children worldwide. Truth is a powerful instrument.”
