First a bomb irradiated Hiroshima, and we did not speak out – because we were not living in Japan;

- then people in Guantanamo were imprisoned and tortured, and we did not speak out – because our sons were safe;
- then drones bombed civilians in Pakistan, and we did not speak out – because we were far away in Britain;
- then Britain's Tornado and Reaper drones dropped over 200 bombs or other missiles on Iraqi targets, and we did not speak out – because it was kept secret;
- then our allies bombed and blockaded Yemen, and we did not speak out – because we were not threatened;

People search for survivors

Then they came for us – and there was no one left to help us
