Updated report from family and friends who have visited former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune in the so-called Villa Annex of the National Penitentiary

It will soon be 2 months since former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune again took up a hunger strike to urge the defacto government to relinquish its stranglehold on his life and his freedom, and also to urge the United Nations forces in the country to guarantee his safety.

The Haitian people and the whole world will remember that the United Nations forces with the authorization of the defacto government had decided to transport former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune out of the country because his hunger strike where he stopped taking food or water had threatened to stop the functioning of his kidneys which would have caused his death. Former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune was well aware of this but at the same time he understood clearly that this was a ploy to exile him. This is why he turned down this seemingly humanitarian gesture until the defacto power would agree to grant him his freedom and the UN forces would protect his life and adequately provide for his safety.

The Haitian people and the whole world know how much satisfaction former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune's death would bring to certain sectors of the so-called civil society and some of the politicians. We all remember the rumors they spread and the scandal they made around his hunger strike and the danger to his life.

At the same time he refused this humanitarian exile trap is when he agreed to begin drinking water and taking medication on the recommendation of a host of doctors including the head doctor of the country's prison system who visited him at the Villa Annex of the National Penitentiary where he has been sleeping on the floor.

Since then, as he presses ahead with the hunger strike, former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune's physical condition continues to deteriorate. Some days are very bad while other days are not so bad. Throughout this ordeal his mental capacity has remained strong and clear.

Many representatives of foreign countries and the international community have visited former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune in the prison cell where the defacto power has had him locked up without cause for close to a year now. Among these visitors have been representatives of the American Government, the Canadian Government, the Organization of American States (OAS), the UN, Caricom, the African Union, etc.

The Haitian people and the whole world remember under what brutal conditions the thugs of the National Penitentiary dragged former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune from his cell to bring him to St. Marc on April 22nd 2005. This was done despite the fact that former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune was on the 5th day of a renewed hunger strike without food or water to continue to exact his liberation.

The Haitian people and the entire world cannot forget that on that day the judge conducting the inquiry, Judge Cluny Pierre Jules, did not even come to court because it was later reported that she had not even been informed by the defacto power that former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune would be brought there.

Some time after this violent incident, on May 15th, former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune was visited by the American Congressman Kendrick Meek. On that same day he was visited by former American Ambassador to the United Nations Andrew Young who was accompanied by the Special Representative of the UN Secretary General, Ambassador Juan Gabriel Valdes, American Ambassador to Haiti, James B. Foley, and Mr. Thierry Fagart, head of the human rights division of the UN mission.

After all of these visits and the conversations and public statements of the representatives of these foreign powers, it became evident to former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune that despite all statements to the contrary total control over his life, his freedom and his safety was in the hands of the defacto power. The defacto power has been clamoring all along that it had nothing to do with the politically vindictive justice apparatus set up by this power after President Aristide was forced out of the country.

It is in this context and with the guarantee of being accompanied by special MINUSTHA security forces that former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune found himself in the cabinet of Judge Cluny Pierre-Jules in St. Marc on May 25, 2005. On that day there was no "renewed confidence" in the "justice" of the defacto power by former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune. Rather it was an occasion for him to once again affirm, with all his might, his confidence in the law, in the process set forth in the constitution, and in the conscience of people who believe in true justice and persist in seeking out truth wherever it may be.

The information contained in this report is truthful and former Prime Minister Yvon Neptune has endorsed it on June 10, 2005.

Note:

Prime Minister Yvon Neptune is critically ill but continues the hunger strike protesting his illegal incarceration. He specifically requested that HLLN translate this report from his Family and Friends from the Kreyol into English and release it to the international community and our peace and justice network.

Since this June 10, 2005 letter, endorsed by Yvon Neptune, and transcribed on his behalf by Family and Friends, the judge in charge of the case, dismissed the charges and ordered PM Yvon Neptune's release.

According to Ronald St-Jean, an order of dismissal of charges was given for by the magistrate in charge of the case, Clunie Pierre Jules. (See, AHP June 21, 2005 report at: Neptune Updates – http://www.margueritelaurent.com/pressclips/updatenept.html

This release order, according to Ronald St. Jean occurred the very day Gousse announced his resignation. However, it's been weeks since this ordered release and PM Yvon Neptune continues to be incarcerated, giving credence to the often heard accusation that the defacto government and its international supporters do not intend to release any of the political prisoners until after their proposed elections (Selections) in Haiti.

The only public statement since the judge Clunie Pierre Jules ordered the case dismissed against Yvon Neptune has been by U.N. special representative, Juan Gabriel Valdes asking for the release but making NO mention that the judge in charge had look at the government's evidence and ordered the case dismissed. (See, Reuters June 23, 2005 article on our website at: http://www.margueritelaurent.com/pressclips/updatenept.html). There are reports that the U.S.-backed Latortue government is interfering with this judicial order and delaying further by demanding that presiding Judge Clune Pierre Jules reconsider his decision.

With MINUSTHA taking over PNH functions, one wonders at the fate of the political prisoners in Haiti. For, PM Yvon Neptune as for the thousands of others illegally being held by Haitian police and authorities in prison, nothing has changed. The atrocities continues that were legitimized when the UN chose to side with thugs, killers and an unconstitutionally imposed government rather than support democratic principles, the Constitutional government and the people of Haiti asking for the return of their ousted President.

Help save Yvon Neptune's life. Ask that the administrative judge's order be upheld, that there are no more delays and that PM Neptune be immediately released. Please call, e-mail and fax letters to the officials listed (Contact information) below. Thank You.

There's no time to waste. All the nationalities are down there in Haiti, in the form of UN troops, quietly liquidating young Black brothers who will not accept the recolonization of Haiti and return of the bloody Haitian bourgeiosie and army back to power.

Even after death, our indignities and sufferings don't stop, because their families can't afford to bury them and their bodies are just dumped in mass graves, left to rot in the streets or morgue: http://www.margueritelaurent.com/solidarityday/pictures/orel 01.html
