Syria's First Lady, Asma al-Assad delivers her first public interview with foreign media.

We bring to the attention of Global Research readers her interview with Russia's Channel 24 TV.

It is important that Americans across the land take cognizance of the voice of Syria's First Lady, acknowledge her humanitarian mandate and commitment outside the realm of mainstream media propaganda.

While Obama and the US media have persistently described the war in Syria as the result of sectarian conflicts opposing the Allawite minority and the Sunni majority, they fail to acknowledge that the First Lady Asma Al Assad is Sunni.

The war on Syria is the result of US-NATO aggression and support of terrorist organizations.

With the ongoing U.S. presidential election campaign, an increasingly large number of Americans consider that what is required is "Regime Change" in the USA, rather than in Syria. (M.Ch. GR Editor)
