

Global Research - A Christmas Stocking?

By Global Research and Global Research

Global Research, December 23, 2017

Whether your concerns are current affairs, foreign affairs, Trump or Togo, Panama or pacifism, nuclear's nightmares and global myriad complexities, Global Research strives to shine light on the under-reported, less known injustices ignored or buried.

Our “stocking” for readers is an average of thirty daily pieces on a wide range of concerns across an increasingly fragile, interconnected planet. As children are taught, knowledge is power.

Governments know it too, which is why there is an unprecedented threat to the independent media and the Internet. Fight-back was never more needed.

Please, during this season of giving, consider donating something, however large or small, to Global Research’s continuation – and to mark it’s sixteenth birthday, “born” two days before the attacks of 9th September 2001, which triggered the horror of the War on Terror and subsequent excuse for destruction of nations.

Since the change of US Administration it seems clear the nuclear brakes are off and the entire planet potentially under threat. We need you and we hope you need Global Research.
