Global Research, November 17, 2021

For more than 20 years, Global Research has been bringing our readers a broad spectrum of voices analyzing complex global situations.

And we will continue to do so because we believe that access to information is the key to the truth.

In relation to the corona crisis, we are publishing on a daily basis the writings of prominent scientists, health professionals and social analysts.

Our objective is to document the devastating impacts of the Covid “vaccine” and lockdown policies, with a view to ultimately confronting the government policies and mandates which are affecting people’s lives Worldwide.

Global Research is independent. We have been able to develop our activities almost entirely thanks to contributions from our readers. We remain indebted to our authors and research associates.

Please consider supporting our Fall donation campaign. Our objective is to raise $25,000 from now until the middle of December.
