Draconian measures against free speech and free expression have become intense in the course of the last three weeks amid the Israeli siege of Gaza.

Online censorship, imposed by Big Tech in coordination with Big Money, has made objective reporting and the subsequent pursuit and consumption of objective news particularly difficult as search algorithms exclude content that do not boost their propaganda.

But thanks to you, our readers, for having joined us in our fight for truth. With your help in the circulation of our online content, you have contributed to global peace and justice. Though it is still a long way to go, you are already making an impact!

However, more work needs to be done, which is why we are asking you to be indefatigable in your efforts. We appeal that you continue sharing our content. You can do so by doing any or all of the following:

- forward Global Research articles via email and other communication apps;
- crosspost GR articles on your websites and/or blogs;
- post and share GR articles on social media and internet discussion groups; and
- subscribe to our daily newsletter, free of charge.

Moreover, if you have the capacity to help us meet our running costs, you may click on the links below to become a member or make a donation. We appreciate your generosity. Again, you are already making a difference!
