Global Research, March 15, 2021

Whether it be the safety issues surrounding Covid vaccines, the ongoing Fukushima crisis, or the mass farmer protests in India, the mainstream media silence surrounding issues such as these is tantamount to lies by omission.

In a world built of spin, our goal has always been to present you with the facts.

We act as a global platform for much needed debate and dialogue within the context of several very complex crises. We need to stand together to find our way amid misled politicians, media misrepresentations, and the suppression of independent thought.

We are powered by our readers and are indebted to your support. If you too believe in the preservation of critical thought and discourse, we ask you to support Global Research by making a donation or becoming a member today.
