Rally –Monday Sept. 27 in front of FBI offices 4:30 pm

ING Building 111 Washington Ave. Minneapolis

(corner of Marquette and Washington Ave. down town)

On Friday, five local peace activists' homes were raided by the FBI. All were outspoken activists from the Anti-War committee and Freedom Road. The Anti-War Committee's office was also raided. These groups are being targeted for their well-informed viewpoint and their ability to legally organize.

It is ESSENTIAL in this new age of Suspicion and Fear that we stand in solidarity with other legitimate peace groups and let the world know that, while they are welcome to disagree with our political opinions, they do not have the right to persecute us for our beliefs, nor trample on our first amendment rights.

Sponsored by area peace and justice groups.
