

Illegal Siege: Why We Must Never Forget Palestine

By Julie Lévesque

Global Research, January 16, 2013

Region: Middle East & North Africa

Theme: Crimes against Humanity

In-depth Report: PALESTINE

In 2011, one year after nine people from the Gaza Flotilla were executed by Israeli commandos in international waters, The Spirit of Rachel Corrie Mission, a humanitarian cargo boat carrying sewage pipes entered Palestinian waters in an attempt to break the illegal siege of Gaza.

Global Research's journalist Julie Lévesque, who took part in the mission, explains why she joined the risky undertaking and gives an overview of the dire situation in Gaza, known as the largest open-air prison on Earth, where fishermen are shot at daily by the Israeli navy and where, according to the UN, it will be impossible to live by 2020.

Listen to the interview on Under the Olive Tree, a CKUT radio show dedicated to Palestine.

Press arrow to activate player:

Click here to download the audio \(MP3 format\)

\(Click here to access CKUT archives\)

Global Research also recommends the following articles:

- Gaza: The Blockade Runners. Pro-Palestinian activism to break the illegal siege
- The Blockade Runners Part II. The Spirit of Rachel Corrie Mission to Gaza: Breaking the Illegal Siege.
- War and Natural Gas: The Israeli Invasion and Gaza's Offshore Gas Fields
- Gaza unlivable by 2020

Click here to access the Global Research in-depth report on Palestine

The original source of this article is Global Research
Copyright © Julie Lévesque, Global Research, 2013

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Julie Lévesque

About the author:

Julie Lévesque is a journalist and researcher with the Centre for Research on Globalization (CRG), Montreal. She was among the first independent journalists to visit Haiti in the wake of the January 2010 earthquake. In 2011, she was on board "The Spirit of Rachel Corrie", the only humanitarian vessel which penetrated Gaza territorial waters before being shot at by the Israeli Navy.

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca