According to a report from the Yemeni media network "Al-Jabhah News", the Islamic State of Iraq and Al-Sham (ISIS) has been fighting alongside the Saudi-led Coalition and their mercenaries against the Houthi forces and Yemeni Army in the provincial capital of the Ta'iz Governorate.

ISIS and Al-Qaeda reportedly have a small presence inside the provincial capital; however, they can only be seen fighting against the Yemeni Army's Republican Guard and their popular committees (including the Houthis).

The bodies of dead Houthi and Yemeni Army soldiers have been videotaped by the terrorist group being dragged in the streets of Ta'iz; this has been the extent of their propaganda in the provincial capital.
