Global Research, November 23, 2022

To our readers,

Yesterday, we commemorated the assassination of John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

59 years have passed yet the real perpetrators remain free and unchained.

Global Research has challenged the establishment's narrative and published a plethora of articles exposing the links to the JFK murder, see this list.

Our intention at Global Research is to continue to relentlessly promote independent and authoritative voices that speak out on issues which are deliberately neglected or distorted by the corporate media.

We live in an age of fear brought about by disinformation, where free speech is outlawed.

Online censorship has greatly affected our readership. In this context, with a view to sustaining our endeavours, we ask our readers to help us reach as many people as possible.

We are doing our best to circumvent all forms of censorship but only an army of readers and supporters can get us through it.
