As a British citizen born in Wales, I signed the petition this afternoon (EST).

Since then the petition has received another one thousand signatures. At the time of writing it was in excess of 55,000. It is currently running at about 170 an hour. If it reaches 100,000, it will be considered for debate in the House of Commons. \(See procedures\). If that happens, Netanyahu may decide to postpone his visit to the United Kingdom. Of course, the parliament could be pressured to delay the debate until AFTER Netanhayu's visit.

We call upon British citizens and British residents who are committed to Human Rights and the Rule of Law to sign this petition. Amply documented, Netanyahu is a war criminal. His Western political partners in the US, Britain, France and Germany are complicit in supporting a war criminal. Forward this article to friends and family, post the petition on Facebook, This will send a clear message to Netanyahu that if and when he sets foot in the U.K., he could potentially face a citizens' arrest.

Crimes of Genocide: Judgement against the State of Israel

In November 2013, the State of Israel was indicted on "crimes of genocide" (Judgement of the Kuala Lumpur War Crimes Tribunal, November 25, 2013). "The Prosecution provided evidence of facts which, examined as a whole, show that the perpetrators had committed acts against the Palestinians, with intent to kill, cause serious bodily or mental harms and deliberately inflict conditions of life calculated to bring about the physical destruction of the Palestinians as a whole or in part".

"The perpetrators [State of Israel] had committed acts against the Palestinians, with intent to kill, cause serious bodily or mental harms and deliberately inflict conditions of life calculated to bring about the physical destruction of the Palestinians as a whole or in part."

"The Tribunal recommends to the War Crimes Commission to give the widest international publicity to this conviction and grant of reparations, as these are universal crimes for which there is a responsibility upon nations to institute prosecutions."

The Tribunal deplores the failure of international institutions to punish the State of Israel for its crimes and its total lack of respect of International Law and the institutions of the United Nations."

Professor Michel Chossudovsky is a member of the Kuala Lumpur War Crimes Commission (KLWCC) which initiated the above indictment against the State of Israel on "crimes of genocide" against the State of Israel, (Judgement of the Tribunal, November 25, 2013). The KL War Crimes Commission is chaired by the former Prime Minister of Malaysia, Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad

The Petition has created controversy in Israel. A spokesman for the British Embassy has reassured the Netanyahu government that “According to British law, foreign heads of state enjoy immunity from the legal process, and cannot be arrested or detained.”

There was no official statement or denial by Her Majesty’s Government that Netanyahu is NOT a war criminal. In turn, The Israeli Foreign Ministry has categorized the petition as “a PR exercise with no practical significance.”

ANNEX

Below are excerpts of the procedures

Petitions which reach 100,000 signatures are almost always debated. ...MPs might consider your petition for a debate before it reaches 100,000 signatures....

The Petitions Committee

The Petitions Committee can: ...

- ask for evidence from the Government or other relevant people or organisations
- press the government for action
- ask another parliamentary committee to look into the topic raised by a petition
- put forward a petition for debate

The Petitions Committee is set up by the House of Commons. It comprises up to 11 backbench Members of Parliament from Government and Opposition parties. The number of committee members from each political party is representative of the membership of the House of Commons as a whole.
