Project Veritas released a new video yesterday where one of their undercover reporters recorded a conversation with Jordon Trishton Walker, an alleged "Pfizer Director of Research and Development, Strategic Operations - mRNA Scientific Planner."

Everyone in the Alternative Media who has covered this, at least the articles I have seen, have concentrated on Walker's statements regarding how Pfizer is experimenting with the idea of "Directed Evolution," which Project Veritas and others claim is the same thing as "gain of function."

I almost was not even going to cover this video, because for one thing, I do not approve of Project Veritas's use of lies and deception to trap someone. Walker clearly asks the "reporter" to promise him not to tell anyone this, and you can clearly see in the video that the interviewer gives him a fist bump in an affirmative reply.

Secondly, as hard as this interviewer tried to get Walker to admit that Pfizer was already working on a method to make variants of the COVID virus more virulent, Walker repeatedly stated that this was just an idea that had been discussed, and that they had no idea whether or not it would work.

Perhaps that is why Project Veritas felt the need to bring in one of the new Superstar Pro-Vaccine doctors to give his opinion about how bad this was.

In the end, I did decide to give this interview some exposure on our network, not because of the claims that Pfizer could develop a lab version of a new deadly COVID virus variant, but because Walker admitted that Pfizer controls the U.S. Government health agencies that approve their drugs, and that this is "bad" for the American public, but good for business for the pharmaceutical companies.

We all already knew this was true, of course, but to get someone within Pfizer to admit this was true, is really quite damaging, and could potentially be used in a court of law if one could find an honest judge somewhere that would have the courage to rule against the criminal activities of Pfizer.

Here is a clip of the video with the main interview, minus the talking head pro-vaccine doctor's comments.

Note: I realize that there are some out there claiming that Project Veritas was setup, and that this Pfizer executive is not real, and does not work for Pfizer.

Here is a rebuttal to that view:

Who is "Jordon Trishton Walker"?

UPDATE:

After publishing this article today, Project Veritas apparently just released a follow-up video where James O'Keefe and a crew of apparently 6 people all went back to the restaurant where Jordon Trishton Walker was apparently by himself inside the restaurant.

I saw this video on Telegram on a popular Alternative Media Telegram channel, and at the time of this update, it had well over 100 comments, all condemning Jordon Trishton Walker and praising O'Keefe and Project Veritas.

Am I the only one who thinks this is wrong??

I am not condoning violence or in any way agreeing with Walker's actions, but what exactly was the purpose of O'Keefe to take a crew with him and go back and confront this guy??

He has done this before, so what kind of reaction did he expect?

Did he honestly expect this guy would just apologize and start a friendly conversation with him?

Or does O'Keefe enjoy antagonizing and intimidating people by interrupting their private lives and putting them on camera with the intention of embarrassing them?

I mean seriously, is this really the way we are supposed to treat people in public whom we don't like? He already got the damaging information from this guy he wanted, which he did by having a person lie and deceive this Pfizer employee/contractor, so why did he have to go back and antagonize this person, disrupting the restaurant business in the process?

Is this really OK? Should we really be applauding O'Keefe in this situation?

The Worldwide Corona Crisis, Global Coup d'Etat Against Humanity

by Michel Chossudovsky

Michel Chossudovsky reviews in detail how this insidious project “destroys people’s lives”. He provides a comprehensive analysis of everything you need to know about the “pandemic” — from the medical dimensions to the economic and social repercussions, political underpinnings, and mental and psychological impacts.

“My objective as an author is to inform people worldwide and refute the official narrative which has been used as a justification to destabilize the economic and social fabric of entire countries, followed by the imposition of the “deadly” COVID-19 “vaccine”. This crisis affects humanity in its entirety: almost 8 billion people. We stand in solidarity with our fellow human beings and our children worldwide. Truth is a powerful instrument.”
