

Press Conference: Human Drama in Gaza Launch

Expo Preview and Movie Pre-Screening

By Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East

Global Research, January 14, 2010

Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East 14 January 2010

Region: Canada

Theme: History

Montreal, Jan. 11, 2010 – Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East (CJPME) invites the media to attend a press conference for the launch of Human Drama in Gaza, a photo exposition due to open to the public on Friday, Jan. 15th. The press conference will be held jointly with Cinéma du Parc, on Thursday morning, Jan. 14th, at 9:30 a.m. at Cinéma du Parc (3575 avenue Du Parc, Montreal, QC H2X 3P9.)

At the same press conference, Cinéma du Parc will announce the launch of the movie Rachel. The press conference will conclude with a media screening of Rachel at 10:15 a.m.

Human Drama in Gaza is due to open to the public on Friday, Jan. 15th at Montreal's Cinéma du Parc. The exhibition features 44 photos, taken before, during and after last winter's 22-day assault on Gaza by professional photographers from Israel, Palestine, and the West. Produced by CJPME, the Montreal stop is the first in a series of cross-Canada shows giving perspective to the Assault on Gaza which began Dec. 27, 2008, and lasted 22 days.

The Exposition will be on display for six weeks at Cinéma du Parc, beginning Friday, Jan. 15 and continuing through Sunday, February 28th. The Exposition will be open from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on weekdays, and from 3:00 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. on weekends.

The Exposition is scheduled to coincide with the one-year anniversary of Israel's War on Gaza, where over 1400 Palestinians and 13 Israelis were killed. "At its core, Human Drama in Gaza is a story about human beings seeking to find dignity and hope as their world is destroyed around them," explained Thomas Woodley, President of CJPME. The Exposition intentionally excludes photos showing the machinery of war, and instead focuses on the tragic beauty of average individuals trying to live their lives in the midst of deepening hardship. Explained Woodley, "The photographers whose work is featured caught simple everyday events in Gaza. Yet given the extreme circumstances in Gaza, these otherwise normal scenes take on a shocking new poignancy."

As an extra attraction for those interested in the Exposition, Cinéma du Parc will also be projecting the film Rachel (opening Jan. 29th) for much of the duration of the Exposition. Rachel tells the story of American activist Rachel Corrie who was killed by an Israeli Army bulldozer in Gaza in 2003 while trying to block the demolition of a Palestinian home. The Exposition and the movie are both scheduled to tour to other Canadian cities throughout 2010.

For more information, please contact:
Grace Batchoun
Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East
Telephone: (514) 745-8491
CJPME Email – CJPME Website

The original source of this article is Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East
Copyright © Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East, Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East, 2010

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca