So the cat is finally out of the bag, coming to you straight from the horse's mouth.

Yet our 'principled democrats' in 'civil society' will want all of us to continue to be as delusional as them in their inability to see this for what it was: a Pakistani military establishment/American national security state classic regime change operation against Khan last year – a fact their Westoxicated Islamophobic and Imranophobic racist souls (cheerleading normalization with Israel) would never be able to swallow.

"Pakistan's powerful army chief Bajwa (who has stolen billions of dollars through corruption) publicly admitted that he conspired against elected Prime Minister Imran Khan, who was overthrown in a US-backed coup in 2022

Soon after, Bajwa visited Washington"
