The Imperative to Achieve National Improved Medicare for All

By Margaret Flowers, November 17 2020

Health care will be a major issue early in the new Biden/Harris administration. Unemployment is still high with over a million people applying for unemployment benefits last week and 42.6% of working age people without a job.

Video: Are We Being Told the Truth About COVID-19?

By Dr. Sucharit Bhakdi, November 17 2020

According to Prof. Bhakdi, “this virus is no more deadly than a seasonal flu and for people under 70, it is even less deadly than the seasonal flu. If you are under 70, your chances of dying with this virus are less than 0.1 percent. In fact, there are about 0.05 percent.”

Don't Call the Cops. Especially if Your Loved Ones Are Old, Disabled or Have Special Needs

By John W. Whitehead, November 17 2020

Walter Wallace Jr.—a troubled 27-year-old black man with a criminal history and mental health issues—was no saint. Still, he didn't deserve to die in a hail of bullets fired by two police officers who clearly had not been adequately trained in how to de-escalate encounters with special needs individuals.

Will Biden Seek to De-escalate Tensions with China and Russia?

By Shane Quinn, November 17 2020

A crucial advantage that China enjoys over its Western rivals, principally the United States, is the country's rebuffing of neoliberalism. Under its present leadership, Beijing's influence over corporations and private power has increased substantially.

Jammu and Kashmir: Implications for Regional and Global Peace

By Robert Fantina, November 17 2020

By looking at what the Israeli model, that Chakravorty is so anxious to implement in Kashmir, has meant for the Palestinians and for peace in the Middle East, we can draw some conclusions on what the result may mean for Kashmir and peace there and in neighboring countries.
