By Pepe Escobar, February 10, 2022

Macron for his part stressed, “new mechanisms are needed to ensure stability in Europe, but not by revising existing agreements, perhaps new security solutions would be innovative.” So nothing that Moscow had not stressed before. He added, “France and Russia have agreed to work together on security guarantees.” The operative term is “France”. Not the non-agreement capable United States government.

Did you know there’s a massive trucker convoy protesting COVID jab mandates in Ottawa, Canada?
