Global Research provides penetrating analysis of world events. The articles published by this invaluable website pull no punches in reporting on global power relations. Marjorie Cohn, Professor Emerita, Thomas Jefferson School of Law

The Centre for Research on Globalization is the largest and most reliable Independent Media news media on the web, with high-quality content and original analyses to inform the global audience about the other side of the coin that the Mainstream Media always ignores. — Andrew Korybko, award winning author and geopolitical analyst

Global Research is massive! I think as a resource for anyone interested in world affairs, it's probably unrivalled in its depth and breadth. William Bowles, Renowned author, Investigating Imperialism

I support wholeheartly the Centre for Research on Globalization and its website. The articles and debates are very well documented and the information that is shared is honest and impartial. We need such professionalism in a moment where the Main Stream Medias have sold their souls to the "politically correct" and forgotten their duty to inform honestly the public. Mother Agnes-Mariam of the Cross, renowned human rights activist and anti-war analyst, Monastery Saint James the Mutilated, Homs diocese, Syria

We are very grateful for the support we received over the past seventeen years. We hope that you remain with us in our journey towards a world without war.
