Historic Increase of US Military Budget: Trump Boosts Most Wasteful Department, Reduces All Others

By Eric Zuesse, February 28 2017

Trillions of dollars are being poured down, into 'Defense' (including aggressions such as the invasions of Iraq, Libya, Syria, etc.) and into 'intelligence' (including the false 'intelligence' that was used to 'justify' those invasions), and yet none of it is at all accountable to the public; it's merely being paid to U.S. corporations by the 'representatives of the public', and will now soar even more, while everything else (supposedly except Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid) will get slashed, as being what supporters of the military-industrial complex call "waste, fraud, and abuse" in all Departments but their own.

By Michael Welch and Abayomi Azikiwe, February 28 2017

The modern history of the world is saturated with convenient narratives typically serving the interests of the victors of war and conquest. Mainstream media discourse around Black History month is apt to ignore inconvenient truths about the indelible links between a specific set of economic relationships today, and abundant psychological pathologies diminishing others based on ethnicity and race. The legendary Malcolm X entertained no illusions about the realities of race in America.
