By Prof Michel Chossudovsky, February 24, 2022

On Tuesday, the Senate met and was requested by the government's representative to make a decision without having access to so-called 'secret information', a report which allegedly confirmed that the application of the Emergencies Act was required and justified.

Ukraine Crisis: How Perfidious Oligarchs Sold the Nation Out?

By Nauman Sadiq, February 23, 2022

In a long overdue decision, Russian President Putin after consulting with the National Security Council officially recognized the two breakaway republics of Ukraine, Donetsk and Luhansk. Subsequently, the Russian parliament unanimously approved the decision and authorized deployment of Russian peace-keeping forces in the Donbass region.

Russia to the US: Your Aggression Stops Here

By Christopher Black, February 23, 2022

The Americans and their satellites states go further and claim a right to expand their alliance, but on what legal, moral or security grounds this right is based they cannot say. They claim that nations have the right to join NATO of their own free will, but this again is a distortion of the facts.
