

Selected Articles: President Assad Tells the Truth About ISIS-Al Baghdadi

By Global Research News

Global Research, November 04, 2019

Lying is a money making activity and lies are commodities. There is a profitable global market for media and public figures committed to spreading disinformation.

Needless to say, "Telling the Truth", on the other hand, Is Not a Money-Making Proposition. The monthly deficit we have been faced with over the past year is proof of this concept.

With this in mind, can you spare a dollar a day to keep disinformation away? Your support could make the difference and ensure that GlobalResearch.ca is here for a long time to come!

The Missing Pieces of the Al-Baghdadi Execution Puzzle

By Nauman Sadiq, November 04, 2019

It's important to note in the news coverage about the killing of al-Baghdadi that although the mainstream media had been trumpeting for the last several years that the Islamic State's fugitive chief had been hiding somewhere on the Iraq-Syria border in the east, he was found hiding in the northwestern Idlib governorate, under the control of Turkey's militant proxies and al-Nusra Front, and was killed while trying to flee to Turkey in Barisha village five kilometers from the border.

The reason why the mainstream media scrupulously avoided mentioning Idlib as al-Baghdadi's most likely hideout in Syria was to cover up the collusion between the militant proxies of Turkey and the jihadists of al-Nusra Front and the Islamic State.

Glyphosate: US Pressures Thailand Over Monsanto Poison Ban

By Joseph Thomas, November 04, 2019

Under Thailand's new government, efforts to ban toxic pesticides and herbicides including those made by US agricultural giant Monsanto were first accelerated, and have now finally succeeded.

Thailand's Deputy Prime Minister and Health Minister Anutin Charnvirakul bluntly stated that "the US was worried only about trade. The Thai government was concerned about the health of Thai consumers," in response to complaints from the US embassy over the ban, Bangkok Post would report in its article, "Govt rejects US opposition to farm chemicals ban."

MH17: The Quest for Justice

By Askiah Adam, November 04, 2019

On Saturday, 17th August 2019, an international conference, "MH17: The Quest for Justice" was held at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) in its Main Auditorium in response to the Joint Investigation Team (JIT) Report made public in June. The Conference was jointly organised by the International Movement for a Just World (JUST), The Perdana Global Peace Foundation (PGPF) and the Montreal based Centre of Research on Globalisation (CRG) in collaboration with IIUM. The JIT Report had accused three Russian nationals and a Ukrainian of having shot down the MAS flight MH17 overflying the war zone of East Ukraine on July 17th, 2014.

"Japanization" and Abenomics: The Saga of Japan's Falling Economy

By Prof. Joseph H. Chung, November 04, 2019

The disappointing performance of the Japanese economy and the amazingly inefficient Tokyo's policies have produced the "Japanization" of the economy meaning the three-decades of economic recession followed by depression and deflation.

There is no reason why other economies will not share the same hateful experience in the future. In fact, there were some voices, thought weak, of worry about such possibility in Korea before the take-over of power by Moon Jae-in in 2017.

Julian Assange: The Lynching of the Charismatic Geek

By Diana Johnstone, November 04, 2019

The original sin of Julian Assange was the same as that of Galileo Galilei. Galileo sinned by revealing to the people things the elite already knew or at least surmised, but wished to keep secret from the masses, in order not to shake the people's faith in the official truth. Assange did the same thing with the formation of WikiLeaks. The official version of reality was challenged. All lies should be exposed. By far the most sensitive targets of his wide-ranging reality revelations were the lies, the hypocrisy, the inhuman brutality of the United States in its wars of global hegemony. To Assange, these things were simply wrong.

Japan – Ending a War and Saving Lives?

By Larry Romanoff, November 04, 2019

A couple of years ago an American writer named Greg Mitchell wrote an informative book on the huge cover-up orchestrated by the US government on the dropping of the first atomic bomb on Japan, and the censorship of the first Hollywood movie on the subject. (1) The government was in possession of much live film footage shot by the US military of both Hiroshima and Nagasaki that Mitchell says would have shocked viewers, with ghostlike ruins and babies with burned faces. He includes many of these original photos in his book, and details the extensive efforts to hide the facts and evidence of the use of the atomic bombs and the tapestry of lies created after the fact to justify this atrocity and present it as a necessary evil.

President Assad of Syria Tells the Truth regarding ISIS-Al Baghdadi, for All Who Care to Listen

By Mark Taliano, November 03, 2019

Western politicians are perception managers, puppets, deep state stooges. They bow to diktats from largely unelected polities. They are hollow, straw figures who sell out their countries and those whom they proclaim to represent with a whim. They have failed to “Stand on guard for thee”. They project “progressive perceptions” as they support Al Qaeda/ISIS and the conduct of war crimes under a fake humanitarian mandate.
