Russia’s Federation Council gave its consent to President Putin for the use of the Russian Armed Forces outside the territory of the Russian Federation – in Syria, chairwoman of the Upper House of the Russian Parliament, Valentina Matviyenko, told TASS, Pravda.Ru reports.

Russia Bombs ISIS

By Stephen Lendman, October 01 2015

After announcing it would conduct aerial operations in Syria, Russian warplanes struck Islamic State targets straightaway – in contrast to Washington’s campaign, attacking Syrian and Iraqi infrastructure targets, supporting its Islamic State foot soldiers on the ground.

Russia Establishes ‘No Fly’ Zone for NATO Planes over Syria, Moves to Destroy “ISIS”. Pentagon Freaks Out

By Joe Quinn, October 01 2015

With a consistency between word and action that exposes Western governments for the liars they are, the Russian military, on the orders of Putin, today began carrying out air strikes against Jihadi targets in Syria.

Putin’s Blitz Leaves Washington Rankled and Confused

By Mike Whitney, October 01 2015

Will [Putin's] actions in Syria mirror those in South Ossetia? It's hard to say, but it's clear that the Obama crew is thunderstruck by the speed of the intervention. Check this out from the UK Guardian: "Back at the White House, spokesperson Josh Earnest suggests that Vladimir Putin did not give Barack Obama warning about his intentions to begin air strikes in Syria.

Obama Accuses Russia of Going After America's "Good Guy Terrorists"

By Prof Michel Chossudovsky, October 01 2015

A major turning point in the dynamics of the Syria-Iraq war is unfolding. Russia is now directly involved in the counter-terrorism campaign in coordination with the Syrian and Iraqi governments. While Washington has acknowledged Moscow's resolve, Obama is now complaining that the Russians are targeting the "good guy terrorists" who are supported by Washington.

The War on Syria. Obama Lied When He Said This

By Eric Zuesse, October 01 2015

U.S. President Obama's central case against Syria's Bashar al-Assad (and his central argument against Assad's supporter Russia on that matter) is that Assad was behind the sarin gas attack in Ghouta Syria on 21 August 2013 — but it's all a well-proven lie, as will be shown here.
