Kim vs. Trump, "Behavior" vs. "Misbehavior", Who are the Lunatics? Bringing a Peaceful End to Conflict on the Korean Peninsula

By Kim Petersen, August 14, 2017

North Korea has an estimated 10 to 60 nukes, although there is still some doubt expressed about North Korean ICBMs being capable of reaching the continental US, of carrying a nuclear payload, or being capable of atmospheric reentry. As for the US, it has 1800 nukes, in Trump's parlance, "locked and loaded."

War on the peninsula risks unthinkable carnage on both sides of the DMZ. Following his May election, President Moon Jae-in urged outreach to resolve longstanding differences with Pyongyang. He suggested meeting Kim Jong-un face-to-face.

Instead, he's become hostage to Washington's imperial agenda, supporting illegal sanctions on the DPRK, suggesting they be strengthened.

"Love for Israel" Senate Bill S720: Making It a Crime to Support Palestinian Human Rights

By James J. Zogby, August 13, 2017

The bill in question, S720, was introduced on March 23, 2017 by Senator Ben Cardin (D-MD). S720 opposes calls by the United Nations to boycott or "blacklist" companies that support Israeli activities in the territories occupied in the 1967 war. The bill further prohibits any US person from supporting this UN call to boycott and establishes stiff fines and/or imprisonment for Americans who violate this prohibition.

China's Economy Shows Strong Resilience

By Lu Yanan, August 13, 2017

Global expectations on China's economic performance are high. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) raised China's 2017 growth forecast to 6.7 percent, its third increase this year. Bloomberg projected China's GDP in the third and fourth quarters at 6.6 and 6.7 percent respectively, both projections 0.1 percent higher than its previous forecasts.
