

Stand for Peace on the Korean Peninsula!

Join the Campaign to Stop U.S. Aggression on the Korean Peninsula

By International Action Center

Global Research, March 11, 2013

International Action Center

Region: Asia

In-depth Report: NORTH KOREA

The International Action Center is supporting this campaign called by the Korea Alliance of Progressive Movements! We urge you all to do the same!

Stand for Peace on the Korean Peninsula!

Join Our Photo Campaign to End the Korean War

On the sixtieth anniversary of the signing of the 1953 Armistice Agreement that temporarily halted but did not end the Korean War, the Korea Alliance of Progressive Movements calls upon allies around the world to stand for peace on the peninsula!

Sanctions against North Korea and annual U.S.-South Korea joint military exercises are clear signs that the Korean War—a war that left over four million dead and one in three Korean families divided—is not over. We ask you to take five minutes and join us in solidarity not only against the U.S.-South Korea joint military exercises and against North Korea sanctions, which only harm the North Korean people, but also for peace talks. Our goal for our “I Stand for Peace” photo campaign is to get at least 200 supporters in the United States (and 1000 in Korea) to commit to the following:

1. Take a photograph in either a public space or a place in your daily life holding a sign with the following demands written on it:
  - a. End Sanctions Against North Korea! (For more info. on sanctions, check out <http://www.kpolicy.org/documents/policy/091023shinchoinovotnysanctions.html>.)
  - b. Stop the U.S.-South Korea Joint Military Exercises! (For more info., check out http://www.kpolicy.org/documents/interviews-opeds/130220christinehonghyunleelurc\_hingtowardswar.html.)
  - c. End the Korean War! (and/or) Peace on the Korean Peninsula Now!
2. Every Thursday for the next three weeks (March 7, 14, and 21), post a picture on your Facebook wall, Twitter account, or any social networking site that you are a part of.
3. Also, send your photo in jpeg format to jimbocorea@hanmail.net so that we can compile it into a mosaic to be used at press events (attached is a sample mosaic) in South Korea.

Our goal is not just to create a powerful symbol of solidarity to use in our press events but also to awaken people to the ongoing 60-plus year fight for peace and reunification. We have had six decades of a precarious stability marked by military conflicts. Now is the time for peace!

Through this campaign, we aim to counter the false belief that the peoples of the United States and South Korea support joint military exercises and a punitive sanctions regime that harms the North Korean people. Together, we stand to say, “I Stand for Peace on the Korean Peninsula!”

Download Posters

The original source of this article is International Action Center
Copyright © International Action Center, International Action Center, 2013

---

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: [International
Action Center](#)

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca
www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca