The world is spinning dangerously out of control. Syria is in deadly danger. The world could be on the brink of Nuclear War.

In other words everything is going as planned for the empire of chaos and it's sinister controlling brain the CIA and a host of interlocking agencies and private corporations, lying media, genocidal humanitarians, thieving bankers, crooked politicians. The Deep state which is only a part of transnational network an interlocking web of spies, despots, global looters. Their world is not our world despite their billions of dollars they are never satisfied unless they are causing untold suffering. How many Hundreds of millions have died for the sake of the planets small ruling elite there is no way to find out because they own the media, the universities, and human rights groups who are nothing more then intelligence fronts providing cutouts for monstrous propaganda. The whole world is built on lies, greed, murder, cowardice. And of course at it's heart a great madness an unspeakable evil.

There are not enough tears in the world to mourn the mindless destruction wrought by imperialism upon the planet for centuries. The conquest of the Americas, Australia, Africa, and Asia untold millions perishing century after century. World war Zero as I call it. And before that there was World War C the crusades which also lasted centuries and involved untold suffering. And before that the crusaders barbarian ancestors had descended upon the classical world destroying roman civilization and bringing on a dark age (World War B?). And of course Rome itself wrought untold destruction and misery upon the world as did the Greeks before them. This is the west that sees itself as the beacon of virtue in the world. It burns our libraries and calls us ignorant destroys our cities and calls us savages without history.

Just how many more centuries of genocide and slavery do you think the world will tolerate before it gives up hoping the west will change and decides to take it's awful revenge? As for me with Syria on the brink of destruction my patience has already run out and I would rather see America and Europe in burning radioactive ruins then see the US-NATO-GCC-Israel succeed in destroying Syria based on these Transparent lies about chemical weapons. Luckily for the world I doubt Russia feels the same way but I guarantee that if instead of pursuing their idiotic "clever plans" they had more resolutely defended Syria the US would back down because there is no real necessity to destroy Syria. All the countries the US destroyed simply because it is ruled by people who have nothing better to do then endlessly scheme to destroy country after country. It is all a game to people in their air conditioned offices while in Iraq, Libya, Yemen, Syria, Rwanda, DR Congo, Ukraine, Somalia, Sudan, Palestine, Afghanistan, Colombia, Mexico, Venezuela, North Korea. It is like the apocalypse to name only some of the places where the US is currently waging wars or plotting to overthrow governments.

Syria has already known untold suffering 350,000 people have been killed and millions have become refugees. The terrorists have targeted schools, churches, mosques, hospitals, power plants, the water supply, the food supply and have even turned the air to poison with their chemical weapons attacks. They have stolen, they have raped, they have killed, destroyed priceless cultural artifacts, taken slaves, tortured and above all lied shamelessly. We've of course been thru all this before back in 2013 when the "Rebels" launched 2 major chemical weapons attacks plus around a dozen small ones in the hopes of bringing NATO's air force into the war.

That campaign was cancelled but in 2014 NATO began bombing anyways supposedly to fight ISIS a group that is only powerful because it was funded and trained by the west. They were trained by the US military during the "surge" which is why they are able to operate the equipment they "captured" during the phony takeover of Mosul in 2014 in which the Iraqi army was actually paid off not to put up any resistance. In any case the chemical weapons attacks of 2013 were proven to be the work of the rebels but the media kept lying about it anyway so that in the popular imagination of people who are barely paying attention people still believe the myth that the Syrian government was responsible. Now the rebels have launched another chemical weapons attack killing 58 people, 11 of them children. Their deaths are on the hands of the media who by serving as cheap propagandists rather than journalists have created a climate in which the terrorists knew they could get away with the same scam.

Of course behind both the media and the terrorists one sees the hand of the CIA which is why the media were able so quickly to launch this massive propaganda campaign aiming to push NATO into destroying Syria before the lies can be exposed. It is all part of a coordinated campaign now we know why Vitaly Churkin and other Russian Diplomats were assassinated. The Moscow bombing the day before the chemical weapons attack was another element of this coordinated plan.

The American invasion Trump has authorized which hopes to use the Kurds as a front to seize the rich agricultural lands of northern Syria was another element of the plan. So too is the anti-Russian Hysteria which has allowed the removal of people in the Trump administration who might have opposed this scheme. As for Trump himself, his whole Pro-Russia, pro-Syria stance was in my view merely meant to lull them into a false sense of security for some grand betrayal as his invasion of Syria had already shown before this chemical weapons attack even occurred. Unfortunately as I write the future is nuclear war could be launched at any moment. Syria the most heroic land on the planet faces destruction but we should not give up hope yet. In fact we should never give up hope so long as the people of Syria exist they will resist. Even if Syria is destroyed they will fight on like the people of Libya are doing right now. Every single one of us must do all we can to support them. Please help spread the truth about the war in Syria.

Since the future is so uncertain I will now discuss what I had originally planned to write about before this catastrophe occurred. The latest victories of the Syrian Arab Army above all the Liberation of Palmyra from ISIS, the massive terrorist counter-attack in Hama, and the successful Syrian counter offensive. First, though there are a couple of other stories I'd like to deal with briefly.

Venezuela a symbol of hope to the world is again under siege the US is trying to use the OAS to threaten a war on the country and delegitimize the government. Tensions are running so high that the supreme court decided to dismiss the traitorous national assembly who are backed by the CIA and who's only goal is the destruction of the Bolivarian Socialist Republic of Venezuela. However under pressure from President Nicolas Maduro who feared the move could be used as a pretext for outside intervention, the Supreme Court quickly reversed their decision. I'll have to return to the topic of Venezuela in the future however as today I am simply too enraged by the prospect of a war on Syria to do the topic justice. However while all eyes are on Syria, we cannot forget the deadly danger Venezuela is also in.

North Korea is also under threat with rumors of a potential war and open talk of assassination plots. The heroic people of North Korea were the first in history to stop the American empire and are one of the last outposts of Communism on the planet. In Yemen, a million protesters gathered to oppose the genocidal war on their nation waged by the Saudi's with NATO trying to hide it's huge role in the shadows. They are attempting to starve a nation into submission thousands of children have starved to death and millions go hungry.

In Libya, protesters demanding the release of political prisoners were massacred by NATO death squads but no one noticed no one cared. Yet the whole war on Libya was begun based on lies about protecting unarmed protesters by bombing the country to smithereens. These were only some of the Horrors that took place during World War 4 in past weeks.

Whatever the fate of Syria we will never forget the heroism her people showed in this war. The speed with which the ancient city of Palmyra was liberated was yet another glorious example. In hard fought battles and with the help of Russian airstrikes, and their allies in Hezbollah the SAA managed to recapture the heights around the city forcing ISIS to flee after suffering massive casualties. Syria's enemies were furious. Israel bombed the SAA in revenge another element in the current plan to destroy Syria. Israel has intensified it's attacks in hopes of aiding the terrorists on the ground. Despite the treacherous relations between Israel and Russia, the Israelis are rumored to have killed Russian troops in their attack on Palmyra. The Syrians claim to have shot down an Israeli jet. The next revenge from the axis of chaos was a veritable invasion of Syria by American Marines supposedly to battle ISIS in reality to seize huge sections of northern Syria.

The Americans have been doing dangerous damage to Al Taqba dam which could cause severe flooding. At the same time the terrorists launched a major offensive in the province of Hama. They forced the SAA to retreat and seized a number of towns. The SAA succeeded in launching a major counter-offensive that caused the terrorists heavy casualties but the battle is far from over with the terrorists still having the strength to launch new offensives. This was the current situation when the terrorists launched their chemical weapons attack and the media launched their massive propaganda campaign. It should be noted that the media has ignored the many times the terrorists have used chemical weapons since 2013 targeting both the SAA and Kurdish forces. Now suddenly on cue the media pretend to care about the issue again solely for the purpose of justifying the war on Syria. It is disgusting absurd, tragic, horrifying.

We can only hope that somehow this escalation of the war on Syria can be stopped. That Russia, Iran and Syria's other friends stand by Syria in this hour of desperate need. Every single one of us must do what we can to stop this war. To see Syria destroyed after her people have sacrificed so much to save her, after she has given her sons and daughters mothers and fathers and brothers and sisters to defend the land, is simply too heartbreaking to contemplate. I don't know what to do but we must all find some way to awaken the people to the horrifying tragedy that is about to occur. Sadly, I just learned that the US has already begun it's attack. I am weeping with rage.

Death to the Empire of Chaos!

Long Live Syria!
