It is just matter of time before the major military powers begin to unleash their nuclear might. They are preparing for the final confrontation. Recent military strikes against Syria by U.S., U.K. and France, based on spurious “evidence” of an alleged “chemical attack” in Douma, indicate that even the pretentious “diplomacy” no longer exists.

Ambassador Nikki Haley, drunk with the notion of “mission accomplished”, has already turned the U.N. General Assembly into a place for her war hullabaloo. She arrogantly announced: “The US is locked and loaded.” In the absence of a massive antiwar movement, the military powers are competing for dominance, the world market and natural resources through their arsenal of death – nuclear bombs. In achieving this goal, the warlords are ready to turn the earth into massive killing fields.

However, in parallel to the forces of destruction, the world slowly is feeling the power of working people. The “Western Democracies” are overwhelmed with strikes and demonstrations by the most oppressed layers of their societies. Women and Youth are marching for their basic rights. Teachers and workers are overcoming the “Union Bosses” and directly challenging the authorities.

The war of ferocious tanks against the innocent bodies has been set in motion.

For peace activists around the world, it is time to stand up independent of the 1% political influences and organize for PEACE by any means necessary. Reject the National Chauvinism; UNITE with your peaceful sisters and brothers.
