Dear Global Research Member and Newsletter Subscriber

The articles in this current issue of the CRG E-Newsletter provide an indepth understanding of the complex causes and consequences of the ongoing financial crisis. You will not find this analysis in the mainstream press, which tends to obfuscate the mechanisms underlying the collapse of financial markets.

Global Research has continued to bring you the articles, research and in-depth analysis that you need to stay on top of current issues. While Global Research operates on a shoe string budget compared with the well-endowed establishment think tanks, it has more readers than the powerful Council on Foreign Relations \(CFR\) \(see graph\)

The response from our readers has been tremendous and we thank you for your feedback and encouragement. However, with increasing numbers turning to Global Research as their choice for alternative news, we ask that you make a donation of your choice so that we may continue to deliver the information that matters to you.

Consider the following:

- Globalresearch.ca received over 1.4 million hits last month (and numbers are rising);
- We have surpassed many mainstream media sites in total numbers of readers;
- Our newsletter now reaches over 11 000 subscribers.

Please keep in mind that Global Research remains fully independent by not accepting money from public or private foundations.

Global Research is committed to curbing the tide of “globalisation” and “disarming” the US military agenda. It is, therefore, important that the articles published on Global Research reach a broad readership.

If you are unable to make a donation, you can help us by cross-posting and/or forwarding Global Research articles, sending them to your friends on your e-mail lists, posting them on internet blogs, etc. This will help us reach a broad readership.
