

The Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA) and “Organ Harvesting”

By Global Research

Global Research, January 22, 2010

B92 20 January 2010

Region: Europe

Theme: Law and Justice

BELGRADE — CoE special rapporteur Dick Marty is in Kosovo to continue his investigation into a suspected case of human organ trafficking in 1999, says Oliver Ivanović.

Serbia's War Crimes Prosecution is also investigating allegations that the so-called Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA), consisting of ethnic Albanians, kidnapped hundreds of Kosovo Serbs and transported them to northern Albania where their vital organs were removed.

The case is also known as the Yellow House, after a location in northern Albania where the removal of the prisoners' organs is believed to have taken place.

Now Ivanović, who is a state secretary with the Ministry for Kosovo and Metohija, told B92 TV that Marty will be meeting with EU mission in Kosovo, EULEX, representatives, and those from other organizations.

“He is continuing where he was forced to stop six months ago, when he was prevented from visiting and investigating the yellow house and from gaining insight into the documents that the Albanian justice organs could have,” he said.

“Marty can count on full cooperation only from us [Belgrade], I doubt it that Albanians, especially Albanians in Albania, will be ready to put what they have at his disposal,” stated Ivanović.

The original source of this article is B92

Copyright © Global Research, B92, 2010

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Global Research

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca