

True Change Through Awareness and Action. Support Independent Media.

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, October 20, 2021

While we must always hold on to hope, true change can only be achieved through awareness and action. As opposed to the mainstream media's lies and half-truths, it is the focus and objective of Global Research to ask real questions, seek honest answers, and help people take this knowledge to empower themselves to change the world for the better.

We have already hosted two Global Research Webinars, one in April and another in September. Both were a success, thanks to our authors, contributors and readers for the support. We plan to hold more webinars in the future, while continuing to produce Global Research TV videos, Global Research News Hour radio shows/podcasts, and Global Research Publishers E-books.

In order to support the development of initiatives such as these, with no external corporate or political sponsorship, we rely on financial contributions from our readers. Please help us spread the word far and wide by making a donation or becoming a member today!
