The US President's personal lawyer and ex-New York mayor Rudy Giuliani visited a rally held by the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI) in Paris where he said that Iran's "regime" will collapse soon and "democratic" representatives of the NCRI have to take power in the country.

"The mullahs must go, the ayatollah must go, and they must be replaced by a democratic government which Madam Rajavi represents. Freedom is right around the corner... Next year I want to have this convention in Tehran!" Giuliani claimed adding that tighter sanctions will be imposed on Iran facilitating the ouster of the country's government.

"When the greatest economic power stops doing business with you, then you collapse... and the sanctions will become greater, greater and greater."

Furthermore, he called for "a campaign to shame the European governments who are unwilling to support freedom and democracy" and urged to boycott companies "that continually do business with this [Iranian] regime."

Meanwhile, the Iranian government is already preparing for possible sanctions to prevent their negative impact.

Michel Chossudovsky

The "globalization of war" is a hegemonic project. Major military and covert intelligence operations are being undertaken simultaneously in the Middle East, Eastern Europe, sub-Saharan Africa, Central Asia and the Far East. The U.S. military agenda combines both major theater operations as well as covert actions geared towards destabilizing sovereign states.
