The KYIV POST just reported a statement by Kyrylo Budanov, Head of Ukraine's Military Intelligence, that the imprisoned Russian dissident, Alexei Navalny died of a blood clot.

"I may disappoint you, but as far as we know, he indeed died as a result of a blood clot. And this has been more or less confirmed," Budanov told journalists on the sidelines at the "Ukraine. Year of 2024" forum on Sunday.

Coming so soon on the heels of Tucker Carlson's interview with Vladimir Putin—who makes President Biden look like a special needs kindergartner—Navalny's death is indeed suspicious. However, because his death was so quickly proclaimed in the West to be a homicide directed by Putin, I wondered if, in fact, it was a homicide engineered by U.S. or Ukrainian intelligence to make Putin look like the villain.

That Ukrainian intelligence is now concurring with the Kremlin's declaration of natural causes is an interesting plot twist.

The only thing that seems almost certain is that whatever is going on in Russia and in Ukraine is NOT being accurately reported in the American legacy media.
