Ukraine and the United States were the only two countries to vote against a Resolution on “combating the glorification of Nazism and neo-Nazism” at the United Nations. (December 16, 2021)

The EU and Canada were among 49 abstentions.

The 76th session of the UN General Assembly adopted a resolution on “combating glorification of Nazism, neo-Nazism and other practices that contribute to fueling contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance” in plenary meeting which took place on December 16, 2021.

Initiated by the Russian Federation, the Resolution saw 130 member states vote in favor of curbing the international rise of neo-Nazism, with Ukraine and the United States once again voting against the Resolution, and with primarily European countries abstaining from the vote. The text of the Resolution can be read and downloaded in its entirety below.
