

Who are the War Criminals? Ukrainian Soldiers Torturing Russian Prisoners of War

By Peter Koenig

Global Research, March 31, 2022

Region: Europe, Russia and FSU

Theme: Law and Justice

In-depth Report: UKRAINE REPORT

All Global Research articles can be read in 51 languages by activating the “Translate Website” drop down menu on the top banner of our home page (Desktop version).

To receive Global Research’s Daily Newsletter (selected articles), click here.

Visit and follow us on Instagram at @globalresearch_crg and Twitter at @crglobalization. Feel free to repost and share widely Global Research articles.

While President Biden is accusing President Putin of being a war criminal, he seems to conveniently forget how his predecessors in the White House all the way back to the 1960s, to and including Lyndon Johnson have committed directly or by proxy war crimes around the world in Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria, Lebanon, Somalia, Egypt, Korea, Vietnam, Yemen — and the list is almost endless.

American-initiated wars and conflicts have in the last 60 years killed between 20 and 30 million people.

One wonders, who are the war criminals?

Where do most war criminals abound as Presidents? The short answer is: In the freedom-loving United States of America. And they are literally all getting away with murder.

Western media fully ignore this fact when they repeat Biden’s accusation calling Mr. Putin a war criminal and worse.

The West, perhaps out of desperation since the end is near, has become a dystopian, lie-infested world, beset by untruths, censoring free-speech, deleting the truth for lies and more. Unknown in recent history.

Since western war criminals literally are getting away with murder, Ukraine soldiers have taken a lesson and become some of the most atrocious war criminals in recent history.

As reported by RT (German), 27 March 2022, they are torturing Russian military prisoners of war in the most brutal ways, in total disregard of the Geneva Conventions on Prisoners of War; see this 3-min video by RT \(German\) or click the image below.

The Geneva Convention on Prisoners of war dates back to 29 July 1929. It became effective in June 1931. The Convention has since been renewed, updated and adjusted on 12 August 1949 as a UN Human Rights Instrument - the Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War. It entered into force on 21 October 1950.

Article 3 of the Convention specifies that Prisoners of war must at all times be humanely treated. Any unlawful act or omission by the Detaining Power causing death or seriously endangering the health of a prisoner of war in its custody is prohibited, and will be regarded as a serious breach of the present Convention. See this.

Soldiers of the Ukrainian army are certainly not abiding by this law and must be held accountable by an International Court of Law judging war crimes.

*

Note to readers: Please click the share buttons above or below. Follow us on Instagram, @globalresearch_crg and Twitter at @crglobalization. Feel free to repost and share widely Global Research articles.

Peter Koenig is a geopolitical analyst and a former Senior Economist at the World Bank and the World Health Organization (WHO), where he has worked for over 30 years on water and environment around the world. He lectures at universities in the US, Europe and South America. He writes regularly for online journals and is the author of Implosion – An Economic Thriller about War, Environmental Destruction and Corporate Greed; and co-author of Cynthia McKinney's book "When China Sneezes: From the Coronavirus Lockdown to the Global Politico-Economic Crisis" (Clarity Press – November 1, 2020)

He is a Research Associate of the Centre for Research on Globalization (CRG). He is also is a non-resident Senior Fellow of the Chongyang Institute of Renmin University, Beijing.

Featured image is from South Front

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Peter Koenig

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca