Gaza City, March 7 (RHC)– In news from Gaza, Israeli F-16 fighter jets have bombed a number of buildings under construction at the Islamic University in Gaza City.

No one was injured in the attacks, but school officials questioned why Israel would bomb an educational facility.

One Palestinian official — who expressed shock and surprise — told reporters that the F-16 jets struck the university buildings at night.

He said the buildings were part of educational facilities and that there were no military installations there.
