Here are my impressions of Canada’s Freedom Convoy:

Despite the government-declared “emergency”, the Freedom Convoy remains very strong and is a potent force against the current Canadian dictatorship. The convoy is entirely peaceful, and everywhere I look I see widespread support. Awareness of what is really happening to us in Canada (and globally) is increasing exponentially, and we can thank the truckers and their supporters for this.

The Ottawa police commissioner resigned today, but in terms of policing, I would say the police have mostly handled the situation well. People I talked to seem to be of the same opinion. — M. Taliano, February 15, 2022
