

US Bombings of Syria

By Global Research

Global Research, October 28, 2008
28 October 2008

Region: Middle East & North Africa

Theme: Crimes against Humanity

Global Research Editor's Note

Using the "Global War on Terrorism" as a pretext, the US is involved in aerial bombings of Syria and Pakistan in blatant defiance of international law and with no apparent justification.

These bombings have resulted in the deaths of innocent civilians. They are acts of provocation directed against sovereign countries.

US officials claim that the bombing raids were part of a counterterrorism operation directed against al Qaeda.

The Western media has been silent on the issue.

M. C. October 29, 2008

Syrian cabinet decides to close American School and culture center

DAMASCUS, Oct. 28 (Xinhua) — The Syrian cabinet decided on Tuesday to close a Damascus-based American school and a U.S. culture center in response to a deadly raid by U.S. helicopters near the Syrian border with Iraq, the official SANA news agency reported.

The decision came at a weekly cabinet meeting that headed by Syrian Prime Minister Mohammad Naji Ottri.

Ottri asked the ministers of Education and Culture to take the needed procedures to implement the decision in coordination with the relevant circles.

During the meeting, the cabinet also decided to postpone the meeting of the High Syrian-Iraqi Committee which is due to be held in Baghdad Nov. 12 to 13.

The Syrian government seriously condemned the brutal, vicious American aggression on al-Sukkariah village in Abu Kamal which claimed eight lives of innocent citizens and wounding another.

The cabinet expressed strong denunciation and astonishment over the statements by the spokesman for the Iraqi government and his unacceptable and irresponsible justification for this heinous aggression which was launched from the Iraqi territories against a neighboring Arab country, said the report.

On Sunday, Syria summoned the U.S. charge d'affaires to Damascus and protested against a U.S. helicopters attack on its civilians.

Eight Syrian civilians were killed in a U.S. helicopters attack in a Syrian farm near its border with Iraq on Sunday afternoon, said SANA.

Later, U.S. officials explained that the raid killed a top operative of al-Qaida in Iraq who intelligence suggested was about to conduct an attack in Iraq.

The original source of this article is Global Research
Copyright © Global Research, Global Research, 2008

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Global Research

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca